My dear Mr. Wilson:

I have just received your letter of March 19th and the enclosed article. I am much interested in the pamphlet that you propose and thank you for inviting me to contribute to it. Before replying to your request may I ask two or three questions in order to be quite clear in regard to the matter.

(1) Is each of the four parts of the pamphlet to be separate and independent and signed by the writer?

(2) Is the writer in any way to be responsible for anything in the pamphlet besides what he himself contributes?

(3) Will there be any copyright which would interfere with one's using the same material elsewhere.

If I may trouble you to answer these questions I shall be the better able to tell you whether I can make the contribution that you request without its interfering with my other work.

As I say, I am much interested in your proposed pamphlet, and I beg to remain

Very sincerely yours,

Wm. H. Burnham

If you have arranged the matter, please tell me who is to write upon child welfare?
