June 10, 1909.

To the

Diplomatic and Consular Officers of the United States.

Gentlemen:

At the instance of the Honorable Richard Young, a Representative in the Congress of the United States from the State of New York, I take pleasure in introducing to you Miss Marian F. Force, of New York City, who is about to proceed abroad, and I cordially bespeak for her such courtesies and assistance as you may be able to render, consistently with your official duties.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

Acting Secretary.
