COUNCIL OF NATIONAL DEFENSE

WASHINGTON

April 25, 1918.

From: Dr. Franklin Martin,
Member of Advisory Commission.

To: Mr. Huntington Wilson,
Care of the Public Ledger,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Subject: Social Hygiene Legislation.

1. Various members of the Committee for Civilian Cooperation in Combating Venereal Diseases have urged the introduction of a bill in Congress providing funds for a more active campaign against these diseases.

2. Knowing of your interest in the subject of social hygiene, we are sending you a tentative draft of a bill which has been drawn up by members of the Committee. We would like to have your opinion regarding the general plan provided by the bill.

3. Please note that the bill is only in tentative form now and that, of course, no publicity should be given to it in its present form.

By direction of Dr. Franklin Martin:

Secretary,
Committee for Civilian Cooperation
in Combating Venereal Diseases,
General Medical Board.
