Alpha Sigma Nu was founded in 1929 by Rebecca Price. Since that time hundreds of sisters have graduated from Ursinus. This year is no exception. Our motto, "Above Sisterhood Nothing," has been proudly followed by this year’s graduating seniors, Karen Price, Nicola Wills, Christine Getty, and Sophia Artis. We'll miss you. Congratulations! We love you.

"We miss you, Kim."

Circle of friends sharing smiles

“We are the green and gold, the dove is in the sky, the yellow roses will be with us 'til we die. We're sisters ever true friendship for me and you, a bond that will not falter as the years go by. And so we sing this song in praise of KDK. We'd like to thank you for such happy memories. And we're so proud to be in the sorority. It's KDK for you and KDK for me!”

Pi Omega Delta has had some difficulties this year, yet we all still found time to laugh and drink together. POD is not a group of guys that acts as a group or an organization that follows old ideals blindly. We have demonstrated this characteristic this past year—we attempted to distinguish ourselves as individuals who will stand up for what we believe in and, ultimately, see our goals through to the end. If anything, the brothers and the fraternity have grown this year despite the hurdles and obstacles that appeared. Eleven seniors are graduating this year, and we sincerely wish that the memories of friendship and brotherhood accompany them through their travels. As Paul DeMarco said, “The Dirtmen are we... the brothers of POD.”

A toast to the seniors of POD
