NINE DAYS.

"Where is your little sheriff?" asked Hal, reaching back for the belt, in the hope of getting a fine out of Dr. Bridget. The words just escaped from her lips, before she had time to reflect on the meaning of her own words.

"No," she answered, "I mean—"

"Bothrin' me hid off," Bridget said, but, considering the portion of her time in the kitchen, how thin I am?!

ANNUAL REGISTRATION

AT THE VICTORIAN, PHILADELPHIA

OF THE LANCASHIRE

The Sellar Family, of London, will hold a large sale of corn, cheese and other provisions at the Victoria Theatre, on Tuesday, the 28th of November. The sale will commence at 11 o'clock, and will continue until the goods are sold. The opportunity is offered to every gentleman and lady to purchase at advantageous rates. The prices will be published in the newspapers before the sale commences.

The sale will include a large quantity of corn, which will be sold at prices calculated on the current market. The cheese will be of the finest quality, and will be sold at prices which cannot be excelled. Coffee, tea, and sugar will also be sold at a discount. The sale will be conducted by Messrs. Sellar and Co., who have a long experience in the business. They are known for their honesty and integrity, and will do their utmost to ensure the satisfaction of their customers.

The Victoria Theatre is situated on the corner of Fifth and Market Streets, and is easily accessible to all parts of the city. The proprietor, Mr. Sellar, is well known for his hospitality and kindness to his customers. The sale will be open to the public, and it is hoped that a large number of persons will attend.

The proceeds of the sale will be used for charitable purposes, and it is believed that the sale will be a success. The Sellar Family are well known for their generosity, and it is expected that they will do their utmost to ensure the success of the sale. The public is invited to participate in the sale, and it is hoped that a large number of persons will attend.

The sale will be held on Tuesday, the 28th of November, commencing at 11 o'clock. The public is requested to be present at the sale, and to support the Sellar Family in their efforts to raise funds for charitable purposes.
