My dear Father:

I should be most happy to meet Mr. Hermann Chubb when he calls. With regard to his desire to be a candidate for the student interpreter corps I send you enclosed a pamphlet on the subject and an application blank, together with a circular on the consular service examination. From these he will see very well the proper steps to take and he will also have all the information we ever give as to the examinations and the subjects to be studied.

Hoping to see you again very soon, I am, always,

Very affectionately yours,

Thomas James, Esquire,

The Washington,

Baltimore, Maryland.
