September 18, 1918.

Brigadier General S. T. Ansell,
Judge Advocate General, U. S. Army,
War Department,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Sir,

Please permit me to bespeak your consideration of my application for a commission under your Department which, supported by various correspondence, has been pending since April 1917, or even earlier, if I recall correctly. $ I also beg leave to request that you be good enough to have ^{it noted upon} my papers ~~amended in the sense~~ that I am now a resident of the State of Pennsylvania, having resided since a year ago at the Lincoln, 13th and Locust Street, Philadelphia, Pa. which is my present address ^{home address}.

^{case, application}
Hoping that my ^{as} set forth in the papers on file in the War Department, may receive favorable consideration in case there are still further vacancies existent or impending, I remain,
my dear Sir,

Very sincerely yours, faithfully,
