USGA Meets, Discusses Possible Demerit Change

By DAVID OBSCHER

The last regular weekly meeting of the Student Government Association was called to order by President Dave Zimmerman on Monday, April 30. Ten members were in attendance.

The possibility of changing the demerit system was discussed. According to the present rule any person who takes his case before the Judiciary Board and is subsequently found guilty has to receive the college Rules and Customs Handbook states in the "minimum" number of demerits to be assigned for that particular offense. However, the Dean of Men and the Dean of Women have, in the past, given less than that minimum number. The rule change that was discussed would allow the Judiciary Board to impose any penalties.

A petition favoring the adoption of this rule change will shortly be circulated to all students.

At the urging of Dr. Heftforth the USGA decided to draw up a resolution to honor the Ursinus students and staff members who participated in the rescue effort at Huntington, Pa. in January. The resolution was read at the Convention held in the gymnasium on Monday. The Association is also giving the school a permanent plaque to commemorate the occasion.

Dave Zimmerman urged anyone who was a blood donor and did not receive a donation record to please contact him so that he could get in contact with the Red Cross. Zimmerman also reported that the old snack shop will be kept open until 6:00 p.m. so that men students will be able to pick up their mail more readily. Finally, Zimmerman noted that the library will be open an extra hour on Reading Day closing at midnight instead of the usual 11:00 p.m.

The next meeting of the Student Government will be on Monday, May 14 right after dinner in the Union. Everyone is invited to attend.

Randy Cole, A Sophomore, Will Study In Scotland Next Year

By RICH WHALEY

Next year, as in the past five years, Ursinus will have one of its male students receive the Andrew Match Scholarship from the St. Andrews Society of Philadelphia. This year's student to receive the scholarship is Randy Cole, from Morrisville, Pennsylvania. He is a Sophomore Political Science major, Pre-Law. His many activities on campus include this year's Men's Chorus, Masteringers, Marching and Concert Band, of which he is President, the College Choir, the International Relations Club, the Treasurer of the Music Organization, and he is a member of the National Honor Society - Franklin and Marshall, Bucknell, and Temple. Ursinus and the University of Pennsylvania are both tie for having sent the most students to Scotland by way of this scholarship. Both schools have sent nine men in the past five years. The scholarship is only one of many students that are from at least two of the eight schools. Each school sends one representative and three of the eight are chosen. Randy Cole was first choice this year. The eight men are interviewed at the Union League of Philadelphia. The three that are selected have a choice of three camps in Scotland to attend. Only one student to one other student is to fill the position that Randy Cole has. Each student sends two representative and three of the eight are chosen. Randy Cole was first choice this year. Shakespeare's Shrew Tames Thompson-Gay Gym Tonight

Tonight in Thompson-Gay Gymnasium is the preview performance of The Taming of the Shrew. By William Shakespeare. This is the final production in ProTheatre's eventful 1972-73 season. Director Dr. Joyce Henry has used everything the gym affords to accentuate this comedy of the battle of the sexes.

The body of the play will be presented in the round, on the gym floor, with hanging ropes, parallel bars, and vaulting boxes round out the set. This interpretation has been kindly entitled "Early Gymnastics."

Cast members include:

- Evan Eyerd, Platnall, Richards, Richard Hufferman, Albert Beale, Dave Fristoe.
- Members of Righteous, Ed Knowles, Vincent Gattone,
- Judy Quann, Judy Weeber, Max Androm, Dan Ashtere, Kim Tilly, and Tom Bowen. Faculty members rounding out the cast are Dr. Evan Snyder, Dr. Cesare Levigante, Mr. Michael Wesner, and Ed Knowles, Vincent Gattone, Judy Quan, Judy Weeber, Max Androm, Dan Ashtere, Kim Tilly, and Tom Bowen. Faculty members rounding out the cast are Dr. Evan Snyder, Dr. Cesare Levigante, Mr. Michael Wesner, set design; Kim Tilly, costumes; Kate Swanston, properties; and Randy Sheddler, ticket sales.

In the gym, a staging appropriate for one of the performing Shakespeare's students. Evan Eyerd, who plays Baptista, the production, answered that question one day straight and succinct. "I can't tell if the real Shakespeare people don't know how to stage it with this modern sort of treatment. I made a comment to Mr. Jones one time about it, asking him what he thought Shakespeare's reaction to that was, and he said, 'Why, he'd love it'!"

When asked to justify the use of a costume, Dr. Jones, said, "I think that some sort of costume would be preferable to what they are doing. We want to make Shakespeare relevant." I submit that this is not very different, but that is really not the issue.

The issue is an evening of entertainment."

Buddhis Follies Perform At Valley Forge Hospital

The mistern of ceremonies, Don C. Scoll-cell, walked across stage in a row of cut evening gown, and you know the older men were feeling better. The occasion was the third annual Buddhist Follies, presented for the servicemen at the Valley Forge Hospital last Thursday evening by the American Buddha's Follies, presented for the servicemen at the Valley Forge Hospital last Thursday evening by the American Buddha's Follies. The evening was a tremendous success, and was attended by a record number of people.

The show was presented with a superb rendition of tunes by the band, and singing a medley of songs from the past. The audience was entertained by dances from the past, and were definitely welcomed back.

Travelin' 6 Show Is A Success Due To Variety of Acts and Talent

Master of Ceremonies Dave Friedenberg introduces an act with the aid of his brazen wit. To be sure, Dave added more zest to an already spirited show. Wayne Simon hams it up during the "Cabaret" dance number. It was said that Wayne might have a sure spot for the part should ProTheatre decide to do the show.

A Memorial to “The Skipped Diploma”;
A Salute to the Good Humor Man

By FRED REISS

Russell, Cooney, Hammerhead, Gary Markевич, Johnny Fry, Pacey, and Gary Rutledge were waiting. We were sitting on our corner, pulling up grass, and watching the lightning bugs flickering in the night sky. It was a hot summer evening, there was no wind, and the only sound that was made was the growing of our stomachs. We would lean and strain our ears waiting for that piercing clanging of the Good Humor man’s bells.

Johnny Fry got tired of waiting and went after lightning bugs. Pacey said, “I hear him coming.” We never listened to Pacey, he was always listening to that piercing clanging of the Good Humor man’s bells, every night he said he heard the bells and every night he was always wrong. Our quarters were sweating in the palm of our hands. Markевич and Fry were laughing, Gary Rutledge was crying.

Finally the truck came in all its glory. The bell were clanging back and forth, Joe at the wheel, smiling, and going at a brisk pace. We would rush to be the first to open the door, when the Good Humor man’s back was turned. They never did it.

Rutledge, Pacey, and myself would sit on the corner and eat our ice cream. Rutledge had the Fourth of July Special, Pacey was sucking on a Wammy Stick, and I was chewing on a Burst Cone. We discussed our plans for the next day. Tomorrow our new business venture would begin. It would be Rutledge, Rutledge, & Reiss Inc., Professional Kool-Aid Salesmen. Our business went bankrupt in two nights. They always dropped his money on the ground; since my allowance was a meager twenty cents a week, it was several dollars.

Old Hammerhead would always try to hunt the horn of the truck. Whenever the opportunity arose, Rutledge would ring the bells. I was content to look on the ground for money. Some little kid would always drop his money on the ground; since my allowance was a meager twenty cents a week, it was several dollars. The worst thing about my younger sister was that she couldn’t get rid of me. She always dropped her money on the ground; since my allowance was a meager twenty cents a week, it was several dollars.

Musical Organizations At U. C.
In Review; Credit Hours Given

By CAROL ABBOTT

There are about twenty people from the college and the community surrounding the college who are members of the Chamber Orchestra. These talented musicians have performed in the Christmas Candlelight Service at Ursinus December 10, 1972 and the All-College Night Sunday, December 4, 1972 with the choir, Mr. Howlett, who directs the orchestra. The present year the orchestra hopes that next year they can play in the Arts Festival besides the Candlelight Service and the All-College Night. Next year and the following years the orchestra will be a credit course if the people in this group play in the group for three of their four years. One semester hour will be awarded to those dedicated people. These musicians practice every Thursday night at 7:30. The orchestra is on the lookout for viola and oboe players. Anyone else who wishes to join this group will be welcomed. The marching band plays college marches, after games, and in parades.

The thirty musicians in the concert band practice on Tuesday nights. They participated in the Christmas Campus Fund Concert. (Continued on Page 4, Col. 3)

BOOZE & BURGERS

Dear Miss Ludwig and Miss Peter.

Your choice of headline for last week’s “Kilt Kild Comment” is a little too negative. We have heard reports that the first women’s lacrosse players and five of the twelve varsity lacrosse players are seniors. We think it is important to recognize the many talented players and the hard work they put in.

URSINUS BEATS HAVERTOWN IN BASEBALL, 9-2; BEARS 5&6

By GARY GRIFFITH

The Ursinus Bears triumphed over a tough Haverford squad on May 5th. The score of the game was 9-2. The victory lifted the Bears to a string of six wins in seven games in the MAC. The victory was credited to southpaw Jim Moser whose record now is 1 win and 1 loss.

On route to the victory Jim Moser was outstanding. He allowed only three hits. Excellent fielding was displayed by both Vukovich and the third baseman Steve Long.

The Bears displayed an amazing spirit and constant chatter emanating from the dugout. Many delightful memories were provided during the course of the game; the witty humor of Marilyn and the “hunkar” character, well known in the baseball world and the sideline antics of freshman catcher Dick Gaglio provided several moments of comic relief. Dick, who had on his dashboard a picture of “Jawin’ Six” continued his Fred Astaire performance at Haverford. Dick, who preferred to sit behind the plate, waited in second base with a double to aid the Bears’ attack.

The Bears hope to continue their winning ways this weekend as they play Albright, Eastern, andScranton this week.
