Although Ursinus is primarily known for its tradition of scholarship and academic achievement, it goes the distance in many other facets of the collegiate life. One of the most important aspects in which Ursinus excels is clubs and organizations. Ursinus students are involved in an array of activities ranging from service to athletics. Students can find a club or an organization to fulfill any interest that they may develop. For the non-competitive athletes still looking for a physical challenge, Ursinus offers many intramural sports such as men’s and women’s rugby. There are also organizations for those looking to expand their global awareness and knowledge of other cultures. Many clubs at Ursinus help prepare students for post-baccalaureate work and professional schools. In addition to providing service within the community, Ursinus students often join clubs which focus on working with those with special needs as well as environment. The yearbook, newspaper, and the literary magazine provide students with an opportunity to express their creative side. With all these options, Ursinus students can have a rewarding academic career as well as a satisfying extracurricular experience.
