I promised someone dear to me named Peachie, that I would graduate from college, although she couldn't reach me. Mentally, and spiritually times could get hard, to have such a close mentor gone, up with the angels, away so far...but persistence was a necessity, couldn't let life changes get the best of me. With courage to continue, and success only on my menu, I've finally made it, through the pain and strife, to finish this chapter and start a new page in life.
