Washington, October 25, 1918.

Groome, Provost Marshal, Tours, France,

Huntington Wilson, formerly of Chicago, whose name will be submitted to you for commission, was many years in diplomatic service, reaching grade of minister plenipotentiary and was four years First Assistant Secretary of State under me, being in my absences Acting Secretary. I wish to vouch for him as a gentleman of quite exceptional qualifications for important duties.

Philander C. Knox.
