We admire your passion for knowledge, intuitive wisdom and your strong sense of honor. You are a selfless person who took a semester from school this year to be with your dad during his sickness and passing. During this time you were a monumental supporter to all of us. You are much like your dad with your vast amount of raw intelligence and the same unlimited capacity to love and to be loved. Like him, you are a charmer but are also tough and rough around the edges, conquering whatever comes your way. To Nicole and Gabe as their big sister, you have been a leader, and offered your endless wisdom. To your older sister Audra you have been a caring and loving little sister. To Shirley, you have been a wonder and like a second daughter to her. Congratulations, Tiff. Your dad would be supremely proud of you. Be happy.

We love you very much!

xoxoxo,
Mom, Nicky, Gabe, Audra and Shirley

NIKKIA MOSS

Nikkia,
When I think back to conversations we had concerning your life goals, well guess what? Youre at goals door. By all means your key to enter is the accomplishments youve made and earned. Open the door, move slowly, stand there in your moment of ah and proceed. Yes, this is the start of your life that God has planned for you. With faith, prayers, education, determination, and execution the world is at your feet. You have really made us proud continue to excel. Lots of love, prayers, and blessings.
Congrats,
MOM

Nikkia,
Your success (although no surprise to me) is a testament of all your hard work and dedication to reaching your goals. I remember when you were a little girl you excelled at everything you put your mind to (academics, dance, volleyball). I have always been proud of you. I know you will have a successful and blessed Future.
Congratulations,
Love
Dad

Lots of love,
Aaron

If someone were to describe YOU as a character, they would take into consideration all aspects of your personality, including your physical appearance, your social habits, your psychological reactions and other peoples perception of your strengths... Other peoples perceptions of your character is what goes into giving you a reputation, whether positive or negative."
