June 22, 1909.

My dear Mr. Minister:

I quite sympathize with your disgust which you express in your letter of June 2nd, at having found that your proposed transfer to Mexico had become prematurely a matter of rumor. You should not, however, feel the slightest concern for we already had every confidence that the rumor in question had not emanated from your Legation.

I am, my dear Mr. Minister,

Yours sincerely,

Henry Lane Wilson, Esquire,

American Minister,

Brussels, Belgium.
