June 22, 1909.

My dear Mr. Noyes:

I beg that you will excuse me for not having long since thanked you for so kindly sending me a book of tickets to the Washington Baseball Club and that you will now be good enough to accept the assurance of my very sincere appreciation.

I had only a very brief interview with our friend, Dr. Jones, when he was last here on leave.

With kind regards, and renewed thanks, I remain, my dear Mr. Noyes,

Yours faithfully,

Thomas C. Noyes, Esquire,
THE WASHINGTON STAR,
Washington, D.C.
