Personal.

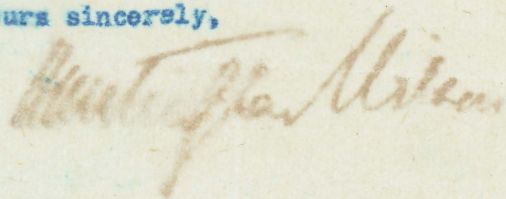

June 29, 1909.

My dear Mr. Norton:

I return herewith Mr. Tenney's letter to you, sent me with your memorandum of the 24th. I placed the question before the Secretary upon his return this morning and he now asks me to say to you that he has promised to go elsewhere on February 22nd if, indeed, he is able to accept any invitation for that date, which appears exceedingly doubtful.

Asking you to receive this information with the expression of the Secretary's very sincere regret, I remain, always,

Yours sincerely,

The Honorable Charles D. Norton,
Assistant Secretary of the Treasury.
