2-25-1971

The Ursinus Weekly, February 25, 1971

Alan Gold
Ursinus College

Marc Hauser
Ursinus College

Roger McClelland
Ursinus College

John T. Fidler
Ursinus College

Charles Chambers
Ursinus College

See next page for additional authors

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.ursinus.edu/weekly

Part of the Cultural History Commons, Higher Education Commons, Liberal Studies Commons, Social History Commons, and the United States History Commons

Recommended Citation
Gold, Alan; Hauser, Marc; McClelland, Roger; Fidler, John T.; Chambers, Charles; McAviney, Don; and Williams, James, "The Ursinus Weekly, February 25, 1971" (1971). Ursinus Weekly Newspaper. 138.
https://digitalcommons.ursinus.edu/weekly/138

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Newspapers at Digital Commons @ Ursinus College. It has been accepted for inclusion in Ursinus Weekly Newspaper by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Ursinus College. For more information, please contact aprock@ursinus.edu.
Authors
Alan Gold, Marc Hauser, Roger McClelland, John T. Fidler, Charles Chambers, Don McAviney, and James Williams
College Without Credit
On PHEAA Scholarships

Pennsylvania students are being turned off by the state's erratic college scholarship program.

Despite the mounting pressures of higher education, there were actually 5000 fewer applications for financial assistance received from college-bound high school seniors this year than in 1970.

Although no formal study has been made, it is widely believed that the result of a credibility gap created by the legislature's refusal to commit funds for the scholarships at the time prospective collegians are arranging applications is the increased numbers of applications received from state scholarship recipients elsewhere.

The deadline for scholarship applications is April 30. Second semester payments (to those who qualify) are based on observed data of the signs of decadence in our society. He emphasized the fact that archaeology has no hard and fast rules or formulas, but that hints which one will continue to publish The Lantern in the future. He will make his home in Roxbury, Massachusetts, according to the editors of The Lantern, which is the official newspaper of the University of Pennsylvania.

The Lantern will be published weekly from Monday to Friday, except holidays.

The Lantern will publish a special edition on the occasion of Dr. Hoyt's retirement, as well as a farewell address by Dr. Hoyt, which will be read at the retirement ceremony on Friday, April 15.

The Lantern will publish a special edition on the occasion of Dr. Hoyt's retirement, as well as a farewell address by Dr. Hoyt, which will be read at the retirement ceremony on Friday, April 15.

The Lantern will publish a special edition on the occasion of Dr. Hoyt's retirement, as well as a farewell address by Dr. Hoyt, which will be read at the retirement ceremony on Friday, April 15.

The Lantern will publish a special edition on the occasion of Dr. Hoyt's retirement, as well as a farewell address by Dr. Hoyt, which will be read at the retirement ceremony on Friday, April 15.
On Being Black at Ursinus

"I don't think we have a generation gap today; I think it's more of a generation overlap.

As far as being black, I don't think I should have to go around saying I'm black. If you can't see me, I'm not there. I'm not black, I'm the person. If you can't see the person, then how can you see the color? I don't think that there's any problem, not mine.

Ursinus is not just a class---there's not enough variety of courses. For the amount of money that you're paying, the amount of courses offered, is not enough. There is a shortage of courses and money. You can't use a Baccalaureate curriculum in less than enough courses in Art and Sociology to allow majors in both. I think if they had these, they'd have more of a variety of people to become.

We've been on campus where it's too liberal---twenty-four-hour open dorms, and I don't like it. Personally, I don't think there's anything wrong with open dorms on campus, as long as they're specified hours of the week, because there's really nothing to do here. Many kids that have open dorms really don't like it because there's no privacy. After the novelty it wears off they're stuck with it.

Most of the people here get along well—you couldn't find a better campus. I think there are a lot of people here who do have good ways of coping with it, and some are in trouble by expressing them. You can have fun on this campus and enjoy it. I think it's all about how you look for it; it's not going to just happen.

"Now that I'm in a sorority (Phi Pot) I'm glad about it. The ones that I knew that I didn't know that I was in a sorority, I hang around less, and it's not in my sorority. It's just a matter of being with the people that belong to a group of girls, having someone to talk to.

The frustrations that I've had here are: the lack of communication between the student government and the student body. I think it's more of an overlap.

On Being Black at Ursinus

"I don't think we have a generation gap today; I think it's more of a generation overlap."

"As far as being black, I don't think I should have to go around saying I'm black. If you can't see me, I'm not there. I'm not black, I'm the person. If you can't see the person, then how can you see the color? I don't think that there's any problem, not mine."

"Ursinus is not just a class---there's not enough variety of courses. For the amount of money that you're paying, the amount of courses offered, is not enough. There is a shortage of courses and money. You can't use a Baccalaureate curriculum in less than enough courses in Art and Sociology to allow majors in both. I think if they had these, they'd have more of a variety of people to become."

"We've been on campus where it's too liberal---twenty-four-hour open dorms, and I don't like it. Personally, I don't think there's anything wrong with open dorms on campus, as long as they're specified hours of the week, because there's really nothing to do here. Many kids that have open dorms really don't like it because there's no privacy. After the novelty it wears off they're stuck with it. Most of the people here get along well—you couldn't find a better campus. I think there are a lot of people here who do have good ways of coping with it, and some are in trouble by expressing them. You can have fun on this campus and enjoy it. I think it's all about how you look for it; it's not going to just happen."

"Now that I'm in a sorority (Phi Pot) I'm glad about it. The ones that I knew that I didn't know that I was in a sorority, I hang around less, and it's not in my sorority. It's just a matter of being with the people that belong to a group of girls, having someone to talk to."

"On Being Black at Ursinus

"I don't think we have a generation gap today; I think it's more of a generation overlap."

"As far as being black, I don't think I should have to go around saying I'm black. If you can't see me, I'm not there. I'm not black, I'm the person. If you can't see the person, then how can you see the color? I don't think that there's any problem, not mine."

"Ursinus is not just a class---there's not enough variety of courses. For the amount of money that you're paying, the amount of courses offered, is not enough. There is a shortage of courses and money. You can't use a Baccalaureate curriculum in less than enough courses in Art and Sociology to allow majors in both. I think if they had these, they'd have more of a variety of people to become."

"We've been on campus where it's too liberal---twenty-four-hour open dorms, and I don't like it. Personally, I don't think there's anything wrong with open dorms on campus, as long as they're specified hours of the week, because there's really nothing to do here. Many kids that have open dorms really don't like it because there's no privacy. After the novelty it wears off they're stuck with it. Most of the people here get along well—you couldn't find a better campus. I think there are a lot of people here who do have good ways of coping with it, and some are in trouble by expressing them. You can have fun on this campus and enjoy it. I think it's all about how you look for it; it's not going to just happen."

"Now that I'm in a sorority (Phi Pot) I'm glad about it. The ones that I knew that I didn't know that I was in a sorority, I hang around less, and it's not in my sorority. It's just a matter of being with the people that belong to a group of girls, having someone to talk to."

"On Being Black at Ursinus

"I don't think we have a generation gap today; I think it's more of a generation overlap."

"As far as being black, I don't think I should have to go around saying I'm black. If you can't see me, I'm not there. I'm not black, I'm the person. If you can't see the person, then how can you see the color? I don't think that there's any problem, not mine."

"Ursinus is not just a class---there's not enough variety of courses. For the amount of money that you're paying, the amount of courses offered, is not enough. There is a shortage of courses and money. You can't use a Baccalaureate curriculum in less than enough courses in Art and Sociology to allow majors in both. I think if they had these, they'd have more of a variety of people to become."

"We've been on campus where it's too liberal---twenty-four-hour open dorms, and I don't like it. Personally, I don't think there's anything wrong with open dorms on campus, as long as they're specified hours of the week, because there's really nothing to do here. Many kids that have open dorms really don't like it because there's no privacy. After the novelty it wears off they're stuck with it. Most of the people here get along well—you couldn't find a better campus. I think there are a lot of people here who do have good ways of coping with it, and some are in trouble by expressing them. You can have fun on this campus and enjoy it. I think it's all about how you look for it; it's not going to just happen."

"Now that I'm in a sorority (Phi Pot) I'm glad about it. The ones that I knew that I didn't know that I was in a sorority, I hang around less, and it's not in my sorority. It's just a matter of being with the people that belong to a group of girls, having someone to talk to."
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1971

PAGE THREE

TWO ON THE AISLE

By ROGER MCCLELLAND

"Diary of a Mad Housewife."

"Oh, it's a movie." "No, it's a movie." "Well, it's an interesting movie." "Anything you say." "Then why did you see it?" "Needed an excuse to get away." "That's it, right?"

"It's a story about the relationship between a husband and his wife, and what happens when her husband tags her too well."

"So what happens?" "She gets a lover." "Riggins everyday." "Why does her lover enjoy it?"

"Because she's a creature of habit."

By CHUCK CHAMBERS

President William S. Pettit

The First Hundred Days

President William S. Pettit

By ROGER MCCLELLAND

"Diary of a Mad Housewife."

"Oh, it's a movie." "No, it's a movie." "Well, it's an interesting movie." "Anything you say." "Then why did you see it?" "Needed an excuse to get away." "That's it, right?"

"It's a story about the relationship between a husband and his wife, and what happens when her husband tags her too well."

"So what happens?" "She gets a lover." "Riggins everyday." "Why does her lover enjoy it?"

"Because she's a creature of habit."

FIDLER ON THE WAX

James Taylor

By JOHN T. FIDLER

After a long evening with James Taylor—listening, talking and山东省—she decided to complete the scene by writing. After all, she had heard him the day before, and it seems right to express some thoughts on America's newly found hero. An unfortu

SPECK'S DRIVE-IN

Hot Potatoes Sandwiches

COLD DRINKS

Milk Shakes

BOOZES

LIME-ICKER, MICH

SOFT ICE CREAM

441-7185

COLLEGEVILLE, PA

BROASTED CHICKEN

483-3128

PENNY'S PIZZERIA

68 W. Ridge Pike, Limerick, PA.

Fresh Dough Daily

Direct From Oven to You

Avoid Watering

490-3636

HOURS

Closed Mon. and Tues.
Wed. & Thurs. 5 P.M. to Midnight
Fri. 11 A.M. to 1 P.M. & 4 P.M. to 11 P.M.
Sat. & Sun. 4 P.M. to Midnight

PHOTO BY KENNETH

THE URUSIN WEEKLY

President William S. Pettit

The First Hundred Days
By DON MCAVNEY

For the second week in a row the Ursinus basketball team upset a powerful court opponent, but was unable to follow up with another victory later in the week. On Wednesday, February 17, the Ursinus five traveled to Philadelphia where they upset Drexel squad. Although the Bears were picked to lose by eighteen points and used a deliberate offense and a tight zone defense to upset the Dragons of Drexel. During the early minutes of the game Ursinus jumped off to a 13-5 lead, but Drexel came back quickly and outscored the Bears 10-2 in the next three minutes. Neither team was able to build a substantial lead during the first twenty minutes and the half ended with Ursinus on top of a 32-28 score.

In the second half the Bears continued to maintain their slim advantage and were able to build an eight point margin at 50-42 with eleven minutes remaining on the clock. Drexel made a strong attempt to cut the lead to 60-58, but Ursinus was able to maintain their two point advantage by successfully rebounding both offensive and defensive boards. At the final buzzer the Bears won 81-70. Tom Sturgeon led a well balanced attack with 18 points. Gary Schall (11), Jon Tanenbaum (10), and Mike Hartline (11) completed the two figure scoring for the Bears.

The following Saturday Ursinus played host to Delaware Valley College. The Aggies of Delval entered the game with a superior record and were expected to control both the offensive and defensive boards. Ursinus scored first, but the Aggies always managed to retain a slight scoring edge during the first half. At the midpoint yard Ursinus trailed 34-32.

Ursinus was never able to build an offensive threat due to their height disadvantage and the numerous turnovers during the final twenty minutes of play. A tight defense kept them off the board throughout the second half, but their eligibility offense kept them from making a serious bid for the lead. Tom Sturgeon tallied 22 for Ursinus and was the game's leading scorer. Ursinus was picked to lose by eighteen points and contributed 14 for the Bears.

Schrader's ARCO Station
460 Main St. Collegeville, Pa.
Official Inspection Station

Closed Wed. D. J. Harvey, Prop. DON'S BARBER SHOP
464 Main St., Collegeville, Pa. (Formerly Moyer's)
Haired Men, Clean Cut - Styling
For Appointment, call 489-2540
Haircutting by appointment only

MARZELLA'S FIFTH AND MAIN
Maureen and Frankie Marzella
FOODS & GIFTS & CARDS
483-9215

Enkaside Inn
Gracious Country Dining Since 1798
ROUTE 422 LIMBERICK, PA.
Phone 485-6222

THE A R A SNACK SHOP WELCOMES YOU

Hoopen Trip Drexel

By DON MCAVNEY

Have you seen the Ursinus College wrestling team yet? Presently sporting a 5-2 record, they have already bested previous seasonal records since 1965. Names like Mowrer, Jones, Starbough, Carhart, Arey, Van Wyk, Poolotl, Hannebury, Knopp, and Singhey are resonating through the conference. For the past 4 months these men (and the other members of the team that have contributed to the success of the team) have been working and improving themselves for the task at hand.

It is not the purpose of this writer to point out other sports but it surely must be easily seen that wrestling is the most grueling of all sports on an individual. Conditioning is a must. Sweat and sometimes blood must come out of the best—in other words, hard work.

Dieting is a discipline known to only those who have stepped on the mat. Only the self-reliance, perseverance, and desire enables him to eke out that last ounce to "make weight." Imagine denying yourself your favorite food or beverage.

With three difficult matches yet remaining these Bears are not bothered. Support your team! (Next week—something about the men that represent you.)

U. C. Matmen Triumph, Win Four In A Row

SCHOLLER'S YOUTH-QUAKE
Hillen's Dress Shoppe
Jewelry · Bags · Scarfs
484 Main Street Collegeville, Pa.
469-3414

MARZELLA'S PIZZA
FRESH DOUGH PIZZA
HOT & COLD SANDWICHES
Avoid Waiting: CALL 489-4262
Open Daily 11 A.M. - 11 P.M.
Closed Monday Evenings

By Joan Fahy

For the second week in a row both the Ursinus basketball team upset Delaware Valley College and had me considering to see a small college team upset a college with an athletic budget and enrollment many times greater.

The Bears, who were picked to lose by eighteen points, upset the powerful Ursinus basketball team. Ursinus was never able to build a substantial lead during the first twenty minutes and the half ended with Ursinus on top of a 32-28 score. Drexel made a strong attempt to cut the lead to 60-58, but Ursinus was able to maintain their two point advantage by successfully rebounding both offensive and defensive boards. At the final buzzer the Bears won 81-70. Tom Sturgeon led a well balanced attack with 18 points. Gary Schall (11), Jon Tanenbaum (10), and Mike Hartline (11) completed the two figure scoring for the Bears.

The following Saturday Ursinus played host to Delaware Valley College. The Aggies of Delval entered the game with a superior record and were expected to control both the offensive and defensive boards. Ursinus scored first, but the Aggies always managed to retain a slight scoring edge during the first half. At the midpoint yard Ursinus trailed 34-32.

Ursinus was never able to build an offensive threat due to their height disadvantage and the numerous turnovers during the final twenty minutes of play. A tight defense kept them off the board throughout the second half, but their eligibility offense kept them from making a serious bid for the lead. Tom Sturgeon tallied 22 for Ursinus and was the game's leading scorer. Ursinus was picked to lose by eighteen points and contributed 14 for the Bears.