July 5, 1909.

My dear Townsend:

I have referred to the Assistant Secretary of War your letter of July 4th, making inquiry about Alport's ^{army} record. I hope he will send you, as I have requested, information suitable for your purposes. I quite agree that it would be appropriate for us to put up a tablet in his honor.

With many kind regards, I remain, always,

Yours sincerely,

Henry H. Townsend, Esquire,
