July 12, 1909.

My dear Sir:

I return herewith, signed, sworn to and attested, the oath required for admission to the Illinois Bar. At the same time I enclose the fee of $1.00, with the request that you be good enough to have my certificate sent me at this address at your earliest convenience.

Yours very faithfully,

William B. Wright

William B. Wright, Esquire,
Secretary, State Board of Law Examiners,
Effingham, Illinois.
