

7-28-1909

Letter From Francis Mairs Huntington-Wilson to Thomas J. O'Brien, July 28, 1909

Francis Mairs Huntington-Wilson

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.ursinus.edu/fmhw\_other

 Part of the Asian History Commons, Diplomatic History Commons, Political History Commons, and the United States History Commons

Click here to let us know how access to this document benefits you.

---

Recommended Citation

Huntington-Wilson, Francis Mairs, "Letter From Francis Mairs Huntington-Wilson to Thomas J. O'Brien, July 28, 1909" (1909). Other Correspondence. 145.

https://digitalcommons.ursinus.edu/fmhw\_other/145

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Assistant Secretary of State (1909-1913) at Digital Commons @ Ursinus College. It has been accepted for inclusion in Other Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Ursinus College. For more information, please contact aprock@ursinus.edu.

July 28, 1909.

Dear Mr. O'Brien:

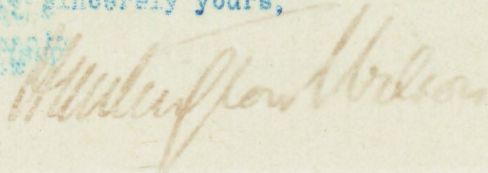

I was ill, I think, when your telegram came, but I know that you have now been wired to come to the Department whenever you yourself choose.

We are all frightfully busy here these closing days of Congress, but one has also visions of a holiday thereafter. My own plans are, however, quite vague. In any case I shall hope to see you when you come East.

The little box of jade is in the hands of Mr. Morrison, Chief of the Bureau of Accounts, to whom I have also turned over the blank draft and Miller's letter about the contingent fund. Please see Mr. Morrison about these things when you come!

With many kind regards, and the hope that you are enjoying your leave, I remain, always,

Yours sincerely yours,

The Honorable F. J. O'Brien,
Grand Rapids, Michigan.