July 29, 1909.

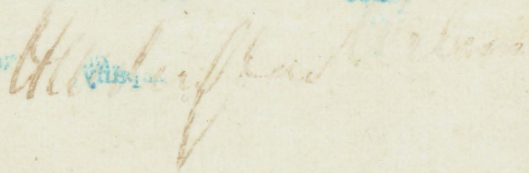

Dear Mr. Steinhart:

Many thanks for your letters of July 10th, 14th and 21st, which I have read with great interest.

As to the matters in regard to which you invite some expression from me, I am sorry to say that it is impracticable for me to attempt at this time to respond.

Again thanking you for your very interesting communications, and with many assurances and kind regards, I remain, always,

Yours sincerely,

Frank Steinhart, Esquire,

Havana Electric Railway Company,

Havana, Cuba.
