Bomberger Changes
Considered by UCC

By JON WEATHER
A sub-committee of the Long Range Planning Committee has submitted to an architect its ideas for the restoration of Bomberger Hall into a liberal arts classroom center.

Conference Approval
The project, which is not yet official, consists of diverting funds provided by the Pennsylvania Southeastern Conference. The renovation of Zwingli Hall for the first year of humanities courses is being deducted from the budget of only the interior of Bomberger. The project is a practical one, says Milton Dettinger, the conference liaison with the UCC, because the funds originally planned for the Convocation Hall have become insufficient because of the drastic rise in building costs and the recent tendency of the church toward projects rather than building programs. The beginning of the project is contingent on the approval of the Southern Methodist Conference as a whole, which is still considering the request. It already has, however, that Dettinger is confident and enthusiastic approval of the Board of Directors. The estimated cost and some $160,000 has already been diverted.

The Liberal Arts Building
While the plans for the building include no structural change for the building, drastic changes are to be made inside it. It is to contain a separate entrance for the Ballenger Chapel, and about two more classrooms than it does at present. These will house the liberal arts studies and will be turned over to fine arts sometime in the distant future. The library hall is to be converted into a lecture hall by changes in the floor, seating, and lighting. Dressing rooms are to be provided instead of the stage for dramatic presentations. Some area of the building will be made into a private meditation chapel with facilities for some 40 to 60 people. This chapel will be open for the use of all religious organizations on campus, as well as for individual meditation. Where this chapel is to be located is not yet decided. It was originally planned for the 3rd floor hand room, but the site was abandoned because of the inconvenience to older people, and because of a lack of adequate facilities. Other plans include the renewing of the day study lounges, a change of the heating system, and a modernization of the condition, the tiling or carpeting of the floors, and the floodlighting of the exterior. It is hoped as well that sufficient funds will be available for closing the tower, and installation of a carillon in it.

The entire rest of the cost of the renovation has not yet been determined, but according to Mr. Dettlinger, the $400,000 being asked for the project should cover it.

"Y" Officers Elected; John Gray President

New officers of the YM-YWCA were elected last week. At the April 15th meeting, Officers Gray and Vice-President Mark Trainsman, and YWCA President Carol Wasserman. Secretary Barbara Walker, Treasurer Joe Busko keep the books for the combined organization, which work in close cooperation.

Active Year Planned

John Gray, incoming president of the 78-79 year, feels that proving the record the Y has set this year for supplying the campus with events, he attributes it to a high level of successful activity to the nature of the Y — a small but open cabinet, relatively large allocation of funds, and its reputation as a "neutral organization" which pleases the Administration, leaving it free to do its own thing.

In sponsoring events the Y is oriented toward programs that are cultural and educational, but also fun. John hopes to achieve more cooperation with other groups on campus to avoid competing week end events when the number of students on campus is already limited. He feels that regardless of whether the event is sponsored by the Y or expressed in a given article, they are reading the Weekly and reacting to the current student enrollment numbers.

Weekly Weekly

In his "Statement of Purpose" for the upcoming year, John Gray outlined the directions the paper is to move in this year. The goal of the newspaper is to move "from part" to "whole," according to Gray, and to be less "captive" to the views of the administration. The journalists are to be asked, ""What is your opinion?"

Staff Appointments

Editor-in-Chief Gray recently announced his selections for next year's editorial associates. John Van Dam, a junior English major from Atlantic, Georgia, has been re-appointed to the position of News Editor. A freshman Political Science major from Shorff, Massachusetts, Chuck Chambers has been named Feature Editor of the Weekly. Finally, the present Sports Editors, Kenneth Yorgey (a junior English major from Pottstown) and Charles Williams (a junior History major from North Wales, Pa.) have been appointed to the positions of Assistant Feature Editors.

Bomberger Changes

Dean William Pettit announced last week a partial list of faculty and staff members who are either leaving or accepting positions at Ursinus. Albert Curtis Allen, Jr., ’82, will become a member of the Biology department next fall, an addition necessitated by Dr. Levison van Dam’s retirement. Mr. Allen expects to receive his Ph.D. from the University of Delaware in the time he begins to teach the UC Biology C11-12 course.

Mike Mangan is a senior who hails from westfield, new jersey. in his four years as a member of the Ursinus community, he has experienced the successes of an outstanding athletic career, has managed the greatest offensive end in a decade at Ursinus, and added the football team to the Southern College Division of the Philadelphia Eagles. in his four years here, he had the opportunity to go out in 1970. in this interview, he expressed his feelings and reflections of his four years here.

I'm not like a lot of the complainers, possibly i'm a middle-of-the-road. i don't mind the rules—i don't adhere to a lot of them even like the food and i think that we have a lot of cute girls here. i don't have any complaints. although, i think i should have some for the things such as the weather and i'm kind of easy-going and i really don't have any complaints.

i think i should be critical about these "hippies" and all these different movements, but then i got to meet with the real people and realized that they're no different than me; they just have different views than i do.

i'm re-elected to the position of editor-in-chief because i deeply and sincerely concerned for the general welfare and the future of the weekly, and i think it would be very much a help to the newspaper to maintain the weekly in a stimulating and thought-provoking manner. upperclassmen can readily recall the time when the Ursinus weekly was a potently reliable vehicle of communications. all of this indicates that the weekly is expressing a provocative and stimulating voice which is reaching a great number of people. we can readily recall the time when the Ursinus Weekly was material of questionable taste than now. indeed, those who have contributed time and time again by the unprecedented accomplishments which have extended that confidence. i am reprinting my reflection of the weekly's accomplishment by my previous editors and i am satisfied to present my past record of service, my re-election to the position of editor-in-chief.

THE URNSUS WEEKLY

PAGES THREE

The following document is the proposed U.S.C.A. Student Bill of Rights, subject to the approval of the Board of Governors and the Board of Directors of the College.

PREAMBULAR

In this period of great change and confusion, boundaries between the academic and the administrative must continually evolve as long as we believe in free speech and democratic process. Today, student, by virtue of his legal age, is capable of making decisions, and therefore his rights are not the domain of the faculty without his consent. The rights granted by the Federal Communications Commission and, therefore, the committee, have been the subject of regulations imposed by the Commission.

Use of Campus Facilities

Meeting rooms and other campus facilities shall be made available, subject to the availability of such facilities for educational purposes, to all students, clubs and organizations with the consent of the organizing body. Facilities shall be available for an academic or non-academic purpose upon the request of a group with the consent of the organizing body. Facilities shall be available for an academic or non-academic purpose upon the request of a group with the consent of the organizing body. Facilities shall be available for an academic or non-academic purpose upon the request of a group with the consent of the organizing body.

Arrests and Convictions

Students who are arrested or convicted of a crime in the college judicial system shall receive the same rights as any other person not found guilty of a crime. The college shall not be bound by any decision not to apply the decision of the local courts. The college shall not be bound by any decision not to apply the decision of the local courts. The college shall not be bound by any decision not to apply the decision of the local courts.

Right of Public Dissent

Student participation in off-campus activities such as peace marches, civil rights demonstrations, draft protest, picketing,boycotts, and other peaceful means of protest is protected by the college. The right of public dissent is protected by the college. The right of public dissent is protected by the college.

V. PERSONAL FREEDOM

Student Residence

Although on-campus living is of economic advantage to the student, on-campus living is of economic advantage to the student, on-campus living is of economic advantage to the student. The college considers this factor in determining a student's eligibility for financial aid. The college considers this factor in determining a student's eligibility for financial aid.

Personal Appearance

Dress and grooming are modes of personal expression and shall be left to the individual's discretion for the student. The college does not control the style and treatment of personal appearance. The college does not control the style and treatment of personal appearance.

Pregnancy

If a student finds herself pregnant, she is entitled to free, private counseling with herself and her counselor. The counselor, a woman, shall be free to decide whether to retain a pregnancy, without referral to the college. The counselor, a woman, shall be free to decide whether to retain a pregnancy, without referral to the college.

Student's locker shall not be opened, nor his room searched, without his consent, except in conformity with the spirit of the Fourth Amendment. The college requires a warrant first be obtained on a showing of probable cause, supported by affidavit or sworn statement, particularly describing the reasons, satisfactorily made in cases involving a grave and immediate danger to health or safety.

VI. REGULATIONS AND DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

Regulations and Due Process

A student's conduct must be in harmony with the standards of the college's educational objectives. Students shall participate fully and actively in selecting and enforcing college regulations. The college cannot deny a "due process," or the right to a formal hearing, if the accused student will not be present at the hearing on grounds of privacy self-incrimination.

Academic Due Process

At hearing, as with felony court, conviction or inquiry, certain rights, the spirit of the college's due process, are denied the accused. In general, these rights include written, advance notice of the hearing, the right to remain silent, access to evidence, the right to examine the evidence and to be represented by counsel. The accused is clearly specified as what is required, not what is prescribed, or what is required, not what is prescribed, or what is required.

Rights Under the College's Inquisitorial or Punitive Procedures

1. All students shall be guaranteed a fair hearing in all procedures under the control of the college administration.

2. Minor infractions of college rules or regulations or reprisals which do not become criminal offenses under local or federal law shall be reviewed by the college administration or judicial committee, or by a member of the college's judicial system, summarily or by a member of the college's judicial system, summarily.

3. In all original proceedings, the accused has the right to a written statement of the charges, a list of witnesses, an opportunity to have counsel, and the right to confront and to cross-examine witnesses.

4. The college shall not impose fines or penalties for the use or possession of illegal substances, or for the sale of such substances, except as authorized by the college's judicial system, except as authorized by the college's judicial system.

5. Students, as members of a college community, have the right to know the best interests, the rights of other students, and the right to be heard, without being restrained or prevented from exercising those rights.

6. The college shall not impose disciplinary fines or penalties for the use or possession of illegal substances, except as authorized by the college's judicial system, except as authorized by the college's judicial system.

VIII. CONFIDENTIALITY OF RECORDS

Confidentiality

All records relating to disciplinary proceedings shall be published and circulated to the entire academic community.

Law Enforcement on the Campus

Although the college cannot levy fines or impose disciplinary sanctions for violation of the criminal laws, it is necessary that the college be able to enforce its own rules. The college shall be able to enforce its own rules, or enter into agreements with local law enforcement agencies, or enter into agreements with local law enforcement agencies. The college shall be able to enforce its own rules, or enter into agreements with local law enforcement agencies.
The news reports come in from Laos and Cambodia, saying that the situation is none too stable. The US must decide whether it wants to fight a war in the South, or if it would be better to negotiate a peace treaty with the North. The satellite image shows that the North Vietnamese are heavily outnumbered in this war, but they have a better chance of winning due to their superior tactics and strategy.

Many people feel that the US should not be involved in this war, as it would be a waste of lives and resources. Others believe that the US should continue to fight, as it is a matter of national security.

The government is divided on this issue, with some calling for a negotiated settlement and others calling for a show of force.

The news reports from South Vietnam show that the fighting is intense, with both sides suffering heavy casualties. The North Vietnamese have been able to hold their own, but they are not winning the war.

The US has been accused of using chemical weapons in this war, which has caused a great deal of concern. The United Nations is currently investigating this issue.

In other news, the US has recently signed a peace treaty with Laos, which has ended 20 years of fighting. The terms of the treaty have not yet been revealed, but it is hoped that it will bring peace to the region.
EARTH DAY
Mr. Kenneth A. Fletcher, Chairman, Environmental Committee of the New Dormitory 112
Drexel College
Dear Mr. Fletcher,
On behalf of the Campus, the Community, and myself, I would like to extend our appreciation for the magnificent results of your efforts to make Earth Day a success on Wednesday, April 22, 1976.
We are cognizant of the fact, and almost in astonishment of it, that you accomplished much, if not most, of these tasks single-handedly. The final result seemed so well-coordinated, representative of our goals, and brought off in an effective manner.
I was pleased with the attendance in the morning program, and hope that the others went well. Some seemed discouraged that the attendance was not greater, but with so many things going on at the same time, I think that we can please.
It was an unfortunate day for me, with many deep applications that could not have been foreseen-shifting the presentation. It can be a great satisfaction for the Drexel Campus, because of the unsatisfactory condition of our own costs. I do feel that you are at least a partial apology for not having prepared better. I have included the panel discussion for which I had been scheduled, and in which I had promised to discuss (Had it been a match on our campus, of course we would have made it!) if you are not tired of it all, or feel that you need a relief. I would like to encourage you and your committee to continue the program in the future. I have committed myself to speak to an audience at the Potthoff Center at 3 p.m. on the fall, on the topic "Environmental Teach-

The Kitchen Cynic:
"Would You Believe?"

By JANE BIEGEL

As I sat, pouring over many quaint and curious variables, I thought of the Earth day did mankind to gain the understanding that it is complete, and for the most part, irrelevant. The question remains whether "man" (by this we mean the "celling," or "Non-Celling) for that matter, can be referred to as "Mother's little help," the more precise general term ending us at the moment is and is not, conversely, who the hell does He think we are? This being so not implying for an instant that it is would, it is not seem that the only valid act for man (see above) would to be laugh at the transparency opaque absurdity of the situation! (All those who voted "no" may shaft themselves, for all we care. On the other hand, all those who voted "yes" are so, will be as you are pleased with the presentation. PMC Defeat Avenged As Albert Triumphs

By PETE VON SOTHEN

Frustation but continued victory — this has been the story of Ursinus track in the past two weeks. Beginning on April 15th, the Bears toughest dual contest, Swampscott-Middlesex, was won by the Bears 34-20 because of rain. Coach Ray Guercyvitch guaranteed a margin of 7 points proved to be a gross under estimate however, as U.C. brooked a 26 point runaway, 8-25. It was a day for ups. First, Bruce Albert swept the 41/2 mile — his best ever by four seconds — while losing his first race of the year by inches in the 400 yard dash. Next, Joe Muscaro, see high marks throw. He swept the sweep with a 41/4" effort despite his unsanctioned, last-minute entry. Tom Brown finally achieved his first sub 50 quarter-mile as he won handily in 49.4 with Art Elwood following close behind in 50.8. But the ups continued as teammate Tom "Sticky" McMorrow dealt Bruce his second defeat of the day in capturing the 880 in 2:06.5. Mercury was the sophomore speedster, who was third, completing an Ursinus sweep. But Albert and McMorrow were not the only two stars on hand, but was ascribed as well as frustrated, and settled for an easy second. In the field, Bob Dennisson surprised with a second in the shot, usually a weak event for him. Bryant Heisinger, MBJ both swept sprints and captured 440 and mile relay teams. Thus the U.C. endmen showed that they still have it for the "big one."

Two days later, the team traveled to Baltimore via the backwoods for

By Jim Williams

Problems continue but Ted Taylor’s batmen have already equalled last year’s winning total with victories over Western Maryland and F & M early in their season. Coach Taylor commented on the season thus far: “We have just got to our pitching striking us out.”

The Bears bested Western Maryland 11-2 in their third match. Hitless and scoreless through the first half, the Bears exploded in the eighth inning.

Pete Shuman again led the Bears to victory, this time over Franklin & Marshall. Shuman scored 4 hits and 8 runs (10-4), of them

CONTEMPLATIONS:

Glorious Revolution

By EDD MCCANDLESS

We are living in an age of anti-American sentiments. Not only internationally but domestically great masses of people are asking whether the United States government has outrun its useful life and whether we should patiently await changes or if we should purge the effete institution entirely. Of course the overt revolutions are labeled all types of apoplectic misnomers by Nixon-fearing reactionaries and are at the moment a small minority, but even “Joe Middle America” is beginning to wonder if a few riots and assassinations are all that bad.

Even old “flag on the wagon Joe” is wondering if he’s living in the same America he fought for. He breaches foul air, drinks rainwater. He watches his savings being eaten up by inflation, his son killed in a war he can't afford to pay as the fate and he answers a census questionnaire that promulgates intemperate radicals for not consuming. While Joe cannot escape a part of the blame for the future, he can’t escape unscathed. He looks to leaders for moral support in a government that is reordering in Chappaquiddick. Joe’s church is invaded by a black man demanding reparations as Adam Clayton Powell talks in Benjamin. He looks out of his window for 8 hours to line the pockets of administrators and buy Cadillac's for chiefs of state around the world. A's his taxes spiral, his black brothers riot because the tax dollars aren’t where they suppose to go and expensive programs fail miserably because of administrative bungles. He can be hauled into court for regurgitating on a private agreement he holds politicians to empty rhetoric of his beliefs.

Judge Hoffman’s court is a simple enough catharsis for dealing with the establishment’s problems with “Super-Joe.” Could it be that Abbie Hoffman, Jerry Rubin and the like are more altruistic, immeasurable, strong-willed flag-posting radicals of the “Joe” type? Could “Jared Joe shall not want” but for how long? They share the same “love-America” feeling iconoclastic and the still undefined “Joe” may be crossing lines to provoke riots. Wouldn’t that be great? Middle America takes a strike at democracy. Children across the nation end praying with “God bless Jerry and Abbie and Benjamin and Skolsey and all the other patriots.” What would you expect of children of that background and rationality? Ah, the glorious revolution; Ah, the decadent U.S.A. Oh hell! The potential is there, the cause is there, and if our public of the youth who are there may lose their heads. It’s time for the few to step enlightened and the many. Sprio Agnew brought up Middle America; let’s hope he didn’t bring it up.

For three hours a meet with Johns Hopkins and Dickinson. Performance-wise it was the best day yet. Bryant Heisinger used a strong wind to his advantage as he held off a Dickinson sweep in the win 100 in 9.9. MBJ later returned to also win the 220 in 22.5. Bart Bennett also ran well, clocking 14.8 in the high hurdles—the second fastest U.C. time ever. Bruce Albert took the mile in a leisurely 4:03 with Tom McMorrow and Pete “the dying swan” von Sothen completing a 1-2-3 sweep. Bruce tried valiantly in the 800, but found PMC champ Ed Phillips of Dickinson to be too much, as he finished second with a personal best 1:58.2. Unbeknown to the crowd, however, the big happening of the day was taking place back in third, as Mercury Bob Mokwokol broke 2:00 for the first time. Joe told newsmen that his achievement was due to unceasing desire and a great body. In the two mile, Rom Herman took a frustrated second with 10.17. It was the field men who sealed U.C.'s victory, however. Led by Danny Miller’s winning toss of 41’6”, Bill Creighton and Bob Dennisson swept the shot-put for the first time in recent Ursinus history. John Tourtellotte continued his return on May 2nd.

Still to come—the MAC championships on May 9-10 and the final home meet against Lebanon Valley on May 22nd. This year’s track team has shown that it very well may have the best team on the school’s history, but only a championship will solidify for sure. In two weeks they will make that statement fact.
