Presidential Message

TO THE 1970 GRADUATING CLASS OF URINSUS COLLEGE

You graduate at a time when established institutions and ideas are being questioned as they have never been questioned before in our history. Much of this questioning is being done by the members of your generation, and it is your generation which ultimately will have to provide most of the answers to those questions.

I hope that as you look for those answers, you will remember the obligation of every educated man and woman to use the time you can make this time of rapid change a time of substantial growth and fulfillment—for yourselves, for your community and for your nation.

As I extend to you my personal congratulations and best wishes, I look to the future with greater confidence than I knew of the exceptional qualifications you bring to the exceptional demands of our time.

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

"As I review with this class the events of the last four years, I am struck by the growth, the development, the maturation that we have seen. As I review this class, I see a growth in the intellectual ability of the students, a growth in their understanding of the world around them, and a growth in their understanding of themselves."
