

8-28-1909

Letter From Henry B. Armes to James T. DuBois, August 28, 1909

Henry B. Armes

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.ursinus.edu/fmhw_other

 Part of the Asian History Commons, Diplomatic History Commons, Political History Commons, and the United States History Commons

Click here to let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation

Armes, Henry B., "Letter From Henry B. Armes to James T. DuBois, August 28, 1909" (1909). Other Correspondence. 161.
https://digitalcommons.ursinus.edu/fmhw_other/161

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Assistant Secretary of State (1909-1913) at Digital Commons @ Ursinus College. It has been accepted for inclusion in Other Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Ursinus College. For more information, please contact aprock@ursinus.edu.

August 28, 1909.

My dear Mr. DuBois:

Your note was received by Mr. Wilson on the eve of his leaving for his vacation and he only had time to read it, but not to sign a letter in reply. He told me, though, to express to you his thanks for your goodness in calling yesterday and to say he was indeed sorry that you got away without his having the opportunity to extend to you personally his best wishes for your further success and achievement.

I think Mr. Wilson well understands the importance of the services of Mr. Bryan, of whom you spoke so highly, and will give the matter in which he is interested very sympathetic consideration.

Yours very sincerely,

Henry B. Brown

James T. DuBois, Esquire,

Care Department of State.