The new building on Market Street is now being occupied by the Providence Independent. The old building opposite has been purchased by the Brown University for its library.

The Progress of the Republican candidacy will be aided by the successful election of Pattison. He is expected to inaugurate a period of prosperity for all practical purposes. The causes as well as the probable results of the recent political revolution, are being discerned by the majority of the electorate, and the Democratic party is in a good direction that has led to the result.

The Democratic party has been reduced to a state of insolvency, and without the aid of tariff or protective measures, and other similar methods, is unable to recover. The party of the future must possess the elements of a new political party.

The recent poisoning, in Norristown, of Mrs. Garber, the wife of the late Mr. H. Garber, has caused a great deal of excitement throughout the community.

The poison was administered by Mrs. Garber's brother, John Garber, and her sister, Mrs. Boileau, who is declared by reliable witnesses to have been the real instigator of the poisoning. The poison was placed in a bottle of flour, which was delivered to Mrs. Garber's house by Mrs. Boileau, who then left the premises.

Mrs. Garber, who is a middle-aged woman, was found dead in her room shortly after the bottle of flour was delivered. The poison was found to be a highly virulent substance that quickly affected the victim.

The police immediately took action, and a search of the Boileau residence was made. A bottle of flour, bearing the same label as that delivered to Mrs. Garber, was found in the kitchen. The police were able to trace the bottle to Mrs. Boileau, who was arrested and charged with the crime.

The case has caused a great deal of excitement in the community, and the police are determined to bring the perpetrators to justice. The trial is expected to take place in the near future.
