September 21, 1909.

My dear Major Carson:

Mr. F. A. Clisdell, representative at Buenos Aires of the General Electric Company, is cordially introduced to the Department of State by Mr. Sherrill, our Minister to the Argentine, and I take much pleasure in introducing Mr. Clisdell to you, with the request that you confer fully with him in regard to any means by which our export trade with the Argentine Republic may be increased.

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in brown ink, which appears to be "Woodrow Wilson". The signature is written in a cursive style and is positioned below the typed name "Yours sincerely,".

Major John M. Carson,

Chief, Bureau of Manufactures,

Department of Commerce and Labor.
