December 3, 1909.

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

The Secretary was going to hand you the enclosed few lines from the Department of Agriculture if you had happened to have any business with him Thursday. I had intended to send it to you early this morning, but have not been able to find even one moment until now.

I am very glad that we are able to do what you wish.

Very sincerely yours,

[Signature]

His Excellency

J. J. Jusserand,

etc., etc., etc.,
