5-23-1968

The Ursinus Weekly, May 23, 1968

Judy Schneider
Ursinus College

Byron Jackson
Ursinus College

Linda Richtmyre
Ursinus College

Mort Kersey
Ursinus College

Thomas Miller
Ursinus College

See next page for additional authors

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.ursinus.edu/weekly

Part of the Cultural History Commons, Higher Education Commons, Liberal Studies Commons, Social History Commons, and the United States History Commons

Click here to let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation
Schneider, Judy; Jackson, Byron; Richtmyre, Linda; Kersey, Mort; Miller, Thomas; Jacob, Frederick; and Hartman, Sam, "The Ursinus Weekly, May 23, 1968" (1968). Ursinus Weekly Newspaper. 190.
https://digitalcommons.ursinus.edu/weekly/190

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Newspapers at Digital Commons @ Ursinus College. It has been accepted for inclusion in Ursinus Weekly Newspaper by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Ursinus College. For more information, please contact aprock@ursinus.edu.
on Saturday, May 11, the annual Spring Festival was held at Patterson Field. The program was entitled "Spring into Handicrafts." It featured a number of different crafts and character portrayals.

The highlight of the Festival was the naming and crowning of the Spring Festival Queen and her court. The Queen was selected by a joint vote, and two representatives from each class were selected as her court.

This year the honor went to Helen L. Southerland, representing the Spring Festival Queen, and Harrriet Metzgar and Betty Miller, representatives of the court. Helen Southerland, Barb Bruzgo and Holly Zalt, junior representatives, Edie Miller and Betty Flynn, sophomore representatives, and Elaine De Boy and Gail Haggy, freshman representatives.

The program began at 2:30 in the afternoon with the presentation of the Queen and her court. The dances presented were "The Ugly Bug Hall" choreographed by Loretta Ewaksziewicz, "Hi Ho" choreographed by Karen Petkus, "Elephant Walk" choreographed by Merry Cupp, I Was a B Like You" choreographed by Donna Hadnagy, Barbara Neustadt choreographed by Marty Bruner, The World Owes Me a Living" choreographed by Betsy Flynn, "Get No Love" choreographed by Charles Hall, and "Santomie Cake" choreographed by Marty Bruner. The Seven Dwarfs were mimicked by Dan Ann and the Mouseketeers were played by UX.

Unfortunately the slight drizzle developed into a steady rain. Despite the weather, however, more than 500 parents and several hundred alumni and friends attended the day's events.

The Spring Festival court members are: left to right, top row: Barbara Bruzgo, Harrriet Metzgar, Queen Helen Dix, Betsy Miller, and Holly Zalt; bottom row, Betsy Flynn, Edie Miller, Elaine DeBoy and Gail Haggy.

Evening Session Added To 68 Summer School

For the first time, a summer term of the Evening School will be conducted in addition to the regular Summer school. Both schools will be in session June 5 to July 30, and for each, more than 50 persons have already registered.

Decision to add a summer term of the Evening School "reflects both the remarkable growth of the Evening School and the College's desire to serve the needs of the expanding industrial complex of southeastern Pennsylvania," according to Dr. Phillips, director.

Sixteen courses will be offered in the Evening School. Ten are in the general field of economics, including such courses as "Money and Banking," "International Organization and Management," "Personal Management," and "Marketing," as well as basic courses in principles of economics. Of the remaining five courses include English composition, political economy, and a course in general problems of philosophy.

NOTICE TO PATRONS AND PURCHASERS OF THE 1968 RUBY

All seniors will receive their yearbooks by mail in October. All undergraduates will receive their yearbooks on campus by September 30th.

---

Helen Dix Is Elected Spring Festival Queen

The Rev. Theodore S. Ledbetter, since 1958 pastor of Plymouth United Church of Christ, Washington, D.C., will be baccalaureate speaker at Commencement on June 3, at 10:45 A.M. in Bomberger Chapel, Ursinus College.

His son, Charles A. Ledbetter, will be a member of the graduating class, with a major in mathematics.

During his ten-year ministry in Washington, the Rev. Mr. Ledbetter has led his congregation in moving from a small house of worship to a new location occupying a full city block with four buildings and a parking lot. Membership of the church has grown from 250 to approximately 1,200 since the change in location was made seven years ago. A seven-weeks-week program is in charge of a staff including three professionals and seven part-time employees.

The Rev. Mr. Ledbetter is a member of the committees on evangelism, church extension, and mass communication, in the Potomac (Metropolitan Washington) Association of the Central Atlantic Conference of the United Church.

He has been active in the Washington Council of Churches and the United Planning Organization (anti-poverty agency), and has served as an Executive Board member and as a delegate to the National Democratic Convention. Privately he is a member of the Episcopalian and Masonic.

The Washington pastor was born in Grand Rapids, Michigan, on January 15, 1919, at Gosal, Texas, the son of the Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Ledbetter. He is a 1935 graduate of Atlanta University where he majored in mathematics, received his Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1935 at Oberlin Graduate School of Theology. He wasordained in Macon, Georgia, in 1940 and has been a member of the Ga. Episcopal Conference of the former Congregational Christian Church and the Episcopal.

Cartoonist Al Capp Featured At Commencement Exercises;

Ledbetter At Baccalaureate

---

BarbBruzgo Wins In Silver Contest

During the months of February and March, Reed and Barton Silversmiths of Taunton, Massachusetts, conducted a photographic competition at Ursinus College. The winners are: First Prize, "The Evening School," by Karen Petkus; Second Prize "Corporation Finance," by Sandra K. Klemperer; and Third Prize, "Money Matters," by Betsy Flynn. The winners were announced at Commencement Weekend.

---

Summer Reading Plan Announced

The Summer Reading Committee wishes to announce their discussions for the summer months. They are: "The Ancient World," by H. A. Guernigwes; "Dusk at the Derm," by Alfred Wallis; and "History of Western Art," by E. O. Goldwater. All discussions will be held directly after commencement in the regular curriculum by 10 a.m. on Sunday, June 3, in Bomberger Chapel. The Summer Reading Committee is composed of Dr. H. W. Wilson, Senator Charles A. Ledbetter, President and Mrs. Donald L. Helfferich cordially invite the members of the Senior Class, their parents, relatives and friends to a Reception at Super House 942 Main Street, on Sunday, June 2, from 4 to 6 P.M.
Last Wednesday, the Y Forum presented an inspiring talk by Mr. Tom Skinner, a Negro minister from Harlem. Mr. Skinner was born the son of a minister, and raised in a religious atmosphere. He could not reconcile religion with the life of a photographer. However, he found it rewarding to help others find peace within themselves. He took a gang of Negroes into the New York City Police force, where he found a way to help them. After a knife fight, he became their leader. During this time, he also became the defender of the student body at his university. He was the captain of the basketball team, and later became its assistant editor. He has written a book titled "The Negro in the City," which is a valuable resource for understanding the challenges faced by African Americans in urban environments.

It is clear that Mr. Skinner has done much to contribute to society. His dedication to improving the lives of others is truly inspiring. His message of peace and understanding is desperately needed in today's world. We must continue to support those who work towards a better future for all.

To present an exhibit which is as well-received as the one Mr. Skinner has been a treat. The exhibit is an excellent expression of the deep-seated issues that face our community. I hope that all of you will have the opportunity to see it. It is a must-see exhibit for anyone who wants to learn more about the challenges we face as a society.
Amid screaming crowds and shouting policemen, this reporter was able to have the privilege of conversing with one of the most renowned experts on the existence of the almost extinct Bamutu Aborigines of Australia. You must understand that such an occurrence as having talked to Mr. Lyman is a once-in-a-lifetime experience.

Mr. Joshua Lyman spent last week on the campus of Rolling Trees College in Rolling Stone, Ohio. When I received word that Mr. Lyman would be in the U.S., I immediately decided to meet and talk to him, no matter where he would be. The Tree College asked Mr. Lyman to come to the U.S. and sponsored his trip. I found out that it was extremely difficult for the officials of Rolling Trees to persuade Mr. Lyman to leave the Bamutu for a week—however, he consented to come to the U.S., if the college would also agree to bring his Bamutu wife and their 17 children. The Administration had no second thoughts about the matter and immediately assured Mr. Lyman that he could bring his family (who also brought their pets).

Joshua Lyman is the campus image at the present. Allan Glassberg, Timothy Leary, Mao Tse Tung, and Che Guevara are all here. You’re probably wondering what Mr. Lyman’s great at. Mr. Lyman is one of the greatest people we call him the Nietzschean superman in small towns. In any case, this means that he is in complete sympathy with those who favor a liberalization of such laws. I feel that there has been undue discrimination made against the women students of Ursinus.

But such laws, though often discriminatory and psychologically unwise, do have the virtue of being clear and definitive. One may be legitimately convicted under such laws since it is only too apparent that the law itself is easily known and understood. Indeed, for instance, a law which says “Women in small dormitories may not have their laundry out of doors on Sunday.” There may be some question as to why such a law exists. (Can it be that that bromides are unimpressive? But at least the law can be understood. We know that a law exists, even if the dormitory administration does not.)

The Administration also donated a case of “Right Guard” to the family.

I asked Mr. Lyman why he had decided to marry Mr. of the Bamutu tribe. His reason was that he felt that he could retard the tribe’s extinction somehow if he produced more Bamutu children. But I inquired further, asking him if he was serious about furthering the tribe, because the children would not be pure Bamutu. Mr. Lyman’s reply was quite direct, telling me that it is better to have half Bamutu rather than no Bamutu at all.

All of the reporters and students at the college followed Mr. Lyman’s every step. We even slept outside the campus—because Mr. Lyman and family were accustomed to sleeping under the stars. The Administration had to import special sleeping bags for Mr. Lyman and family, but they immediately became very nauseous upon digesting them. It appears there was quite a mess.

Mr. Lyman was spending a rather interesting and rewarding week at Rolling Trees College. I had better return to U.C. to convey my good fortune of meeting Mr. Lyman to the student body. Mr. Lyman would be in the Ohio.

—BYRON JACKSON

The "Illegalities" Of Ursinus Law

Much of the criticism of the rules of Ursinus College has been directed at certain definitive provisions and restrictions with respect to drinking, having women in men’s dorms, smoking on campus, and signing out privileges. I shall say at the outset that I am in complete sympathy with those who favor a liberalization of such laws. I feel that there has been undue discrimination made against the women students of Ursinus.

But such laws, though often discriminatory and psychologically unwise, do have the virtue of being clear and definitive. One may be legitimately convicted under such laws since it is only too apparent that the law itself is easily known and understood. Indeed, for instance, a law which says “Women in small dormitories may not have their laundry out of doors on Sunday.” There may be some question as to why such a law exists. (Can it be that that bromides are unimpressive? But at least the law can be understood. We know that a law exists, even if the dormitory administration does not.)

The Administration also donated a case of “Right Guard” to the family.

I asked Mr. Lyman why he had decided to marry Mr. of the Bamutu tribe. His reason was that...
New Profes Include Economist, Historian

The names of two new faculty members have recently been made public. Dr. Donald J. Hunter, assistant professor of economics at Iowa State University, will become associate professor of economics and department head, and Dr. Derrick Visser, assistant professor of history at Ursinus, will become associate professor of history.

Dr. Hunter received his B.S. at the University of Illinois in 1965, and his M.S. and Ph.D. at the Iowa State University in 1964 and 1967.

Dr. Visser is a native of Amsterdam, Netherlands. During seven years of travel he studied at the Universities of Amsterdam, Paris, and Grenoble, receiving his M.A. at the University of Pennsylvania in 1960 and his Ph.D. at Bryn Mawr in 1966. He has also taught at the College, and at Temple University.

Each year Dr. Visser contributes approximately a hundred abstracts from six Dutch and German journals to the publication Historical Abstracts.

A. W. Zimmermann, Jeweler

COLLEGEVILLE, PA.

Celebrating 50 years as an American Gem Society Complete Line of Jewelry, Watches, and Charm Charms

BUDGETING?

A special checking account will help control expenses.

Provident National Bank
Member F.D.I.C.

CLUB 1000

Ballroom Available for Receptions, Dancing, Banquets, Shows, etc. • From 50 to 500

44-44 HIGH ST., POTTSTOWN
Phone 233-9755

SFARC Minutes

President Helfferich was present and spoke to the committee concerning the hiring of a psychiatrist to carry out the policy of Ursinus College. Although the President gave no concrete facts concerning the procedure he said that the college is looking for someone who will be of value to the school and beneficial to the students. Rehiring is based on this value as evaluated by the President, department heads, and other department members. When asked if there were any means for student evaluation of faculty, the President responded that there were none at the moment, but that he was looking for ways to open up such means to students.

The President also commented on the need for recommendation concerning the hiring of a psychiatrist and said that he was studying the facts of the situation.

TO THE 1968 GRADUATING CLASS

URSINUS COLLEGE

I believe it will be great.

I cannot measure our national ability to abolish ignorance and sickness and injustice because we have no measure for our enemies degrade humanity—though I believe it is limitless.

I cannot predict that America's future will match and exceed the brilliance of her past—but I believe it will.

The answers will not come in my lifetime but the future is in your hands. I am confident that you who have earned your college degree will endure, and to win, will serve that future with distinction.

Don't sell short of your potentiality, those who have the most to give.

I cannot tell you the extent of America's future, but I can say with absolute certainty that it will be to the highest ability of those who have the most to give.

The greatest responsibility the years of college, the senior year, are an important part of the student's preparation to face the future.
URSIUS THINCLADS GO UNDEFEATED ONCE AGAIN

Baseballers Lose To Lehigh; Compile 6-12 Log For Season

The Ursinus baseball team ended a frustrating season in a very frustrating way last Saturday afternoon. They lost, 4-3, to Lehigh for seven innings, the Bears collapsed in the final two frames and lost, 4-3, to Lehigh. The late-inning collapse recalled shades of the Delaware game, a contest which failed to preserve the lead for Ursinus.

The Bears were victorious every time last Saturday, but again the late-inning collapse brought trouble. Taylor pitched six innings of strong baseball, but he began to tire in the seventh. None but a Lehigh runner to advance to second and third bases. Both batters reached second and third bases. Both batters took over the pitching chores put runners at first and second for

The October Club, which has been advertised on the bulletin board, will meet tonight in the Student Center. At the meeting, the members will elect officers for the new year. The meeting is important to the club and all members are encouraged to attend.

U.C. Neimen Beat Albright; Celebrate At Red Cedars

Last Friday saw the most thrilling finish to an Ursinus sports event since the track men beat Swarthmore by a point last year. This time the scene was the McKean tennis courts and the result was a 5-4 win over Albright for the Ursinus men and women.

The team had to sweep the doubles to do it. Albright took the singles 4-2, with Jenkinson and Mazey picking up the wins for Ursinus. The first and second doubles teams won handily; it all came down to the third doubles. Jacob and Lordc acted to a 6-2 margin in the first set, then dropped the second 7-9, after missing several chances for match point. By this time the other matches were over and all eyes were focused on the third court. Cheers went up for every exceptional shot. The cheer at the end was even louder; Jacob and Lordc brought home the bacon.

With the advantage on the court, the next day was going to be a struggle for Ursinus.

Last Saturday saw the most thrilling finish to an Ursinus sports event since the track men beat Swarthmore by a point last year. This time the scene was the McKean tennis courts and the result was a 5-4 win over Albright for the Ursinus men and women.

The team had to sweep the doubles to do it. Albright took the singles 4-2, with Jenkinson and Mazey picking up the wins for Ursinus. The first and second doubles teams won handily; it all came down to the third doubles. Jacob and Lordc acted to a 6-2 margin in the first set, then dropped the second 7-9, after missing several chances for match point. By this time the other matches were over and all eyes were focused on the third court. Cheers went up for every exceptional shot. The cheer at the end was even louder; Jacob and Lordc brought home the bacon.

With the advantage on the court, the next day was going to be a struggle for Ursinus.

Increasingly more students are participating in the October Club, which has been advertised on the bulletin board. At the meeting tonight, the members will elect officers for the new year. The meeting is important to the club and all members are encouraged to attend.

U.C. Neimen Beat Albright; Celebrate At Red Cedars

Last Friday saw the most thrilling finish to an Ursinus sports event since the track men beat Swarthmore by a point last year. This time the scene was the McKean tennis courts and the result was a 5-4 win over Albright for the Ursinus men and women.

The team had to sweep the doubles to do it. Albright took the singles 4-2, with Jenkinson and Mazey picking up the wins for Ursinus. The first and second doubles teams won handily; it all came down to the third doubles. Jacob and Lordc acted to a 6-2 margin in the first set, then dropped the second 7-9, after missing several chances for match point. By this time the other matches were over and all eyes were focused on the third court. Cheers went up for every exceptional shot. The cheer at the end was even louder; Jacob and Lordc brought home the bacon.

With the advantage on the court, the next day was going to be a struggle for Ursinus.

Increasingly more students are participating in the October Club, which has been advertised on the bulletin board. At the meeting tonight, the members will elect officers for the new year. The meeting is important to the club and all members are encouraged to attend.

U.C. Neimen Beat Albright; Celebrate At Red Cedars

Last Friday saw the most thrilling finish to an Ursinus sports event since the track men beat Swarthmore by a point last year. This time the scene was the McKean tennis courts and the result was a 5-4 win over Albright for the Ursinus men and women.

The team had to sweep the doubles to do it. Albright took the singles 4-2, with Jenkinson and Mazey picking up the wins for Ursinus. The first and second doubles teams won handily; it all came down to the third doubles. Jacob and Lordc acted to a 6-2 margin in the first set, then dropped the second 7-9, after missing several chances for match point. By this time the other matches were over and all eyes were focused on the third court. Cheers went up for every exceptional shot. The cheer at the end was even louder; Jacob and Lordc brought home the bacon.

With the advantage on the court, the next day was going to be a struggle for Ursinus.
The sisters of Alpha Sigma Nu are looking forward to the upcoming fall season. President, Kathy Finn; recording secretary, Connie Black; corresponding secretary, Linda Murray; Treasurer, Sue Hausman; treasurer, Nancy Myler; chaplain, Ruth Allen; social chair, Linda Murray and parliamentarian Betty Lou. Congratulations to those who have stepped in with a real flair for organization—within minutes we were all divided on a group of 16 with 2 in each group and the tone set for the rest of the week. Our big event was the Jogging Gul Hamilton of Phi Psi—Spring Dinner Dance was held at the hotel about fabulous evening! Keep the noise down, you don't want to ruin this one! Disappearing Party Favor—crying James Bono, Secret Agent '68! But Betina was just ducky for a "Muff" wreath on her Skip, and we all enjoyed our evening—within minutes we were all closed!" I guess we're gonna miss ya, Skip! Our new officers are: Cat, Pres.; Chuck Fryer, V.P.; Corresponding Sec., Sue Besinger; Ann; Corresponding Sec., Sue Besinger; Parl. Sec., Becky Rauch; Alumnae Sec., Laurie Pimme. Our dinner dance was terrific; things certainly have changed since "Pouchie"days. Club's hallmark—"Old Gold" was just ducky for a while, but the "big V" should be a real eye pleaser. Old Selfridge has gone on a strict diet—no more rich food for him, he said. But then, that relationship should have been Ayered out a long time ago. Will quit smoking—Frankly, she was forced to. Claire has been acting stranger than normal, what's up? Laurie has been monitoring around a lot lately, too.

Congratulations Barb Wagner on your election to Vice-President of the U.S.G.A. Have a good summer and good luck to all of those brothers who are graduating or leaving: Jim Blons, Robert Compton, Charlie Dekey, Don Scott, and Pug. I mean Steve Engel.

Zeta Chi
You can't make a splash without a Ripple. Wine, the think drink. Arian supremacy was the theme of the senior party. Gus was the only person that really benefited from the punch. Gus's horrid head by moving his nose slightly to the right. Lean and lanky, Gus is, he is. You have to try to poplarize that old tune, "We've Got Schick Lehn Schmick."

Congratulations to Tex for doing the job of "combustion boiling Mac's fire that wasn't there.

Spring Festival was a success. Pete Shuman is missing. Tiny Tim had a fine time. Going to undergrad at the same time. The Chipmunks through the Zetas. Everything will be fine in the fall. This year we're all going to be emotionally involved. Rumor states that Baldauf is going to be a toastmaster. Viper has everything down Pat. Mouth-a-little pole vaulted into precious.