January 12, 1910.

Dear Miss Boardman:

I beg to acknowledge your letter of the 6th, wherein you are good enough to give me the names of the International Relief Committee so far as hitherto appointed. I infer that you think there should be a preliminary meeting called after we have heard from Justice White. Meanwhile, please consider me entirely at your disposition and command me at any time.

Very sincerely yours,

A handwritten signature in brown ink, which appears to be "William Howard Taft". The signature is written in a cursive style and is positioned to the right of the typed closing.

Miss Mabel T. Boardman,

The American National Red Cross,

Washington, D.C.
