Death in the Sky.

The killing of Waldo was not unnatural, and before anything more was attempted it was decided to summon the police. After the murderer had fled, the police officers set out to find him, but they found nothing.

The LAWYER'S SECRET.

The defense, however, was quite strong, and the accused was not found guilty. The trial was then adjourned until the next day.

The next day the accused was taken to the police station, where he was kept for a few hours, but he was then released, as there was no evidence against him.

The case was then referred to a grand jury, and the accused was summoned to appear before it. He appeared and was acquitted, as there was no evidence against him.

The trial was then resumed, and the accused was again taken to the police station, where he was kept for a few hours, but he was then released, as there was no evidence against him.

The case was then referred to a grand jury, and the accused was again summoned to appear before it. He appeared and was acquitted, as there was no evidence against him.
