January 14, 1910.

My dear Baron Ambrozy:

With many apologies for the delay I enclose herewith a print of our circular containing the proposition as to availing of the Prize Court as a general court of arbitration.

I understand you desire also some information as to the American proposal made to certain Powers with a view to a combination of railway interests in Manchuria. The Secretary will be glad to place such information at the disposition of His Excellency the Ambassador and I have had the pleasure of arranging to have it sent you tomorrow.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

Baron Louis Ambrozy,

etc., etc., etc.,

Austrian Embassy.
