Dr. Theodore A. Distler, president of the Commission for Independent Colleges and Universities of Pennsylvania and former college president, delivered the 88th anniversary commemorative address at Ursinus College on Monday, June 8, 11:00 a.m.

Dr. Distler has served on the boards of trustees of institutions of higher education in the eastern United States. He was president of Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa., from 1941 to 1955.

After attending Stevens Preparatory School and Brown University, he graduated from New York University in 1922. He received his M.A. degree from the same institution in 1932 and L. D. degree in 1947.

Long Educational Career

President Distler began his all-professional career in American higher education as a member of the faculty of New York University (1922-25). He served the same university until 1934 in a number of positions: Secretary of Administration, Assistant Director and Director of Student Welfare and Director of Admissions and Student Personnel until he was elected Executive Director of Lafayettge College, Easton, Pa., in 1944. After serving as Dean of Franklin and Marshall he served as Executive Director, Association of American Colleges, 1954-1964.

Hating declined his life to the youth of our nation he has served as a member of the Advisory Council, National Merit Scholarship Corporation, Association of American Colleges, Pennsylvania Association of Colleges and Universities as secretary and president, and member of President's Council, New York University.

Honorary Memberships

Dr. Distler holds membership in eight fraternities and honor societies. He is best known as a lecturer and writer for educational purposes. He has received the New York University Alumni Award, 1933, Franklin and Marshall College Alumni Medal, 1941, George Washington Honor Medal, 1957, and the Hillsides College Alumni Award, New York University, 1957.

In addition to his academic and professional interests Dr. Distler has served on a number of boards in social and humanitarian causes. He has been chairman of the Pennsylvania Chapter of the National Tuberculosis Association, Advisory Hospital Planning Committee of the Philadelphia Symphony Orchestra, Presbyterian Home Builders Association, and the Evangelical Education Committee. He holds membership in the Century Club, Washington, D.C., and the Hamilton Club of Lancaster.
The state of the play

A few people have screamed on the Weekly for not providing adequate coverage on the Curtain Club's activities of late. In all justice, their criticism is well taken. The Weekly has been guilty of somewhat underplaying (no pun intended) providing adequate coverage on the beast will be shed by this bit of public relations.

The Curtain Club's final endeavor of the semester, The Story and The Sandbox introduced Paul Meyer. This fall the Crucible, featuring a tour-de-force performance by Jim Blore, examined the psychology of superstition and man's inhumanity. This spring found the Curtain Club quite active. Look Back in Anger by John Osborne, although weakly performed, gave an enlightening account of England's angry young men. Two one-act plays by Edward Albee—Zoo Story and The Sandbox introduced Ur-sinus to the works of America's most prominent playwrights. The Curtain Club's final endeavor of the semester, The Skin of Our Teeth, was undoubtedly the finest campus presentation of a play in this editor's memory. Sue Spohn, Pam Green, Jeanne Eyer, Joy Windle, Mitch Sayre, and Don Green are to be congratulated for their professional performances.

The student body of Ursinus owes a vote of thanks for the Curtain Club's noteworthy accomplishments this year.

"We gotta go now"

This special edition marks the close publication for the Ursinus Weekly during the academic year 1966-1967. We hope you've enjoyed our past efforts. If you did, please tell your friends about us. Perhaps the next year we'll be back again—twisting the lion's tail and engaging in other suitable activities. So until September, take care and, as Eric says, 'don't work too hard.'

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

TO THE GRADUATING CLASS
URSINUS COLLEGE, 1967

It is a pleasure for us to extend my best wishes as you conclude your college education.

You are graduating into a society in which you will be warmly welcomed. Our country has excellent educational opportunities for highly educated men and women. Never have younger Americans moved from college campus into the world of work than is the case today. There is a broad range of opportunities for individual fulfillment and contribution to the welfare of our country.

Your generation of students has been distinguished by its fresh and vigorous concern for the quality of American life and its commitment to American democracy. This is an excellent opportunity awaiting you in the challenge to make this a life-long commitment.

Today, Americans from all walks of life are striving together to shape a society that can offer a meaningful and rewarding life to all its members. Never have so many or so varied a group been so deeply dedicated to eradicating the old evils of ignorance, pov­erty, and prejudice that have come to us from every corner of the world.

Through your years of study, you have prepared yourselves for positions of leadership in this quest for a better America. I congratulate you and urge you to take full advantage of that opportunity.

Sincerely,
LYNDON B. JOHNSON

Editors
GOOD-BYE TO ALL THAT

Well, Class of 1967, you've just graduated from Ursinus College. The four years have passed, and now you must face the cruel world you've heard so much about. The speakers at commencement have told you in glowing and somewhat pompous terms that you are the hope of the future, and perhaps you are. God knows in times as troubled as these the world needs a little hope.

I won't bore you with any of that "profound" advice that has been troubleshooting your ears of late. Nor shall I offer you any guidelines that might glorify to forget. I think you are mature enough by now to plan your own lives and decide upon ideals to live by.

I view your passing with a general amount of sadness, for you were a good group of people. A special note of gratitude I give to Larry, Mike, Chuck, Ron, Bill, Jay, Joe, Marsh and John — Thanks a lot.

To the rest of you, good-luck and good-bye.
Mr. Richter Promoted; Estes Succeeds Him

Richard P. Richter has been appointed Assistant to the President by the Ursinus College Board of Directors, it was announced by President Donald L. Hoffacker.

The appointment of Donald C. Estes to the position of Development and Alumni Director was announced at the same time.

Mr. Richter's chief responsibilities will be in the areas of long-term planning and financial development of the College.

A graduate of Ursinus cum laude in 1965, Mr. Richter joined the college staff in 1966 as alumni secretary. He will serve as Development and Alumni Director, with the implementation of a centennial development plan envisioning seven major building additions on the campus by 1975.

Mr. Estes is a graduate of the University of Texas, has done additional study at Boston University and the University of Florida. He is presently doing graduate work at Temple University. He will move with his family to Collegeville this summer with his wife and their two children.

European Seminar Tours 6 Countries

Twenty-two college students and Mr. Douglas Davis, associate professor of history, will tour Europe and England this summer from June 15 to July 30.

The party will leave New York on Thursday, June 15, on the S.S. United States bound for Le Havre, France. From there, the tour will travel through Paris—Porto, Bordeaux, Carcassone, Marseilles; Italy—Rome, Venice, Verona, Milan; Kandersteg, Switzerland; Germany—Frankfort, Munich, Heidelberg, Puchau; Amsterdam, The Netherlands—Tours. Usually, the party will fly to London and a quick trip to Strath-ford-on-Avon. The return to London has the group traveling through Wales, Bath, Glastonbury, Stonehenge, Salisbury, and Winchester.

The Ursinus Quarterly

Second Year For "I Madrigalisti" Brings More Performances, Renown

The Madrigalisti spirit at Ursinus experienced a quickening of the pulse this year as "I Madrigalisti" were warmly received by academic and professional audiences in southeastern Pennsylvania.

Formed two years ago, the group has found its efforts rewarded by an increasing number of engagements which this year included recitals before history classes on campus, the Choco-Mint Music Teachers' Association, the Reading Music Club, music enthusiasts at Lafayette College, and organizational representatives at the Music Activities Banquet.

The three appearances at Lafayette College included the Madrigalisti spirit of music, contributions to the Roman Catholic service as well as to the Protestant Church services.

Scholars Honored In Class of 1971

All of the following students have been honored upon entrance to Ursinus in the fall of 1967. This distinction is conferred upon those incoming students who have the most distinguished high school record. Those who have won the National Merit Scholarship or an Ursinus Centennial Scholarship are listed separately.

Delta Phi

Congratulations to the new Delta Phi members! President: Slim Cawthray, Vice President: Bob Brudor, Treasurer: Andy Murphy. The new officers were installed by the Delta Eastern, Corresponding Secretary. Also made the big announcement that the added distinction of being elects was granted to the first student to be so honored. Congratulations, Gary.

Sandy Leup, for the seniors of Delta Phi were honored with a dinner at the Red Fox Inn. The dinner was given by the Alumni, and apparently it was an evening filled with stories from the seniors to the Alumni.

Alpha Phi Epiphin

The APES wish the best of luck to the seniors who plan to meet the college representatives from Fordport, Jay Cohen, and Larry Bugresse next week. Don’t worry about it though, because Bugresse prepared you well. Wait Irvine looks forward with a marching band and Delta Bugresses in history and Chicago. The pledges only hope that this event is not a repeat of the Alpha II event. Twentyman hopes to finally achieve a job with a final candidate. It’s a shame. If it took them five years to graduate, be 30 before graduating, Bob. They will teach at Drexel Hill Junior High. That should be interesting. We are looking forward to hearing to the Air Force, at least. It’s a shame we have to wait.

Delta Sigma Nu

Sig, well, there’s a bawl on. And we also hail all 11 new officers. Congratulations to our President, Sue, who is also Secretary (Ten N. N. N). By the end of the door locks, Marty encourages everyone to remember their own legacy for the guest of honor, since Marty has nothing left to give himself.

The Board of Directors did not increase the Student Activities Fee as much this year, due to several other factors in the financial position of the College, according to Dr. Hoffierich. He said, however, that the “lifted’” Board men demonstrate the Board’s recognition of the importance of a breathtaking stulat.

Frat—by Gothe

Well, the Germans still think that they can rule the world and Goethe is very, very damaging.
