March 7, 1910.

Dear Mr. Carter:

Many thanks for attending to the boxes and portfolios; both are splendid. The Department is paying for the boxes, and I shall be very grateful if you will please let me know what I owe for the two portfolios. I am very much obliged indeed for your kind assistance in this matter.

Hoping that all goes well with you at your new post, I remain, with my kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

The Honorable John Ridgley Carter,

etc., etc., etc.,

American Legation, Bucharest.
