Chapter I — Early Errors.

She was a very pretty girl, and she knew it, and she determined to make the most of it. She was not born in a village, and had no intention of remaining there. She was going to see the world, and she determined to make the most of it, and she was going to do it in style. She was not used to rough work, and she determined to avoid it.

"But it isn't a quality," she added.

"It's all right, Mary," said the old man.

"I don't see why it isn't," she replied.

"It's not a quality," he repeated.

"Well, what's it called then?"

"It's called 'pride'."

"That's bad, isn't it?"

"Yes, it is."
