DEPARTMENT OF STATE

OFFICE OF

THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY.

January 14, 1911.

Dear Mr. Anderson:

Senator Burton asks what the present situation in regard to the Jordan Fishing Regulations is as I must write him a letter on the subject the first thing Monday morning.

Newspaper men have also asked me the present status.

I shall appreciate it if you will be kind enough to let me have, by Monday morning, a little memorandum which will enable me to write Senator Burton and also a few notes which will enable me to tell the press anything that may be said on the subject.

H.W.
