Seven Junior Men Named To Cub and Key at Prom

In 1958, six senior men decided that there should be some organization on campus which would recognize and assist those male students who devoted their scholarship, character, and service to the University. Several junior members of this society have been chosen to succeed their predecessors, and they have selected their final names at the Prom, according to constitutional by-laws, no more than seven members may be selected, and many times in the past fewer than seven have been chosen. However, the trend in recent years seems to be that the full quota will be filled.

ICRC Announces Model United Nations

Over eight hundred students from 40 colleges and universities attended the fourth United Nations Model United Nations Conference, March 10-13. The conference was sponsored by the American Historical Association and was held in the spring of 1955.

The three-day conference was held in the City of New York. The students were divided into small groups and were given the task of representing as many nations throughout the world as possible.

The students were assigned to different countries and were told to represent them as accurately as possible. They were given a small amount of time to practice before the actual conference began.

The conference was divided into three main sessions: a plenary session, a committee session, and a debate session.

During the plenary session, the students were given the opportunity to discuss and debate various issues related to the United Nations. They were also able to hear from various guest speakers.

In the committee session, the students were divided into smaller groups and were given the task of representing a particular country. They were given a small amount of time to discuss and debate various issues related to their country.

The last session was the debate session, where the students were given the opportunity to debate various issues related to the United Nations. They were given a small amount of time to practice before the actual debate began.

The conference was successful and was enjoyed by all those who participated. The students were able to learn about the United Nations and its role in world affairs.

An important aspect of the conference was the opportunity for students to network and make new friends. Many students were able to meet students from other colleges and universities and were able to share ideas and experiences.

The conference was a great success and was enjoyed by all those who participated. It was a great opportunity for students to learn about the United Nations and its role in world affairs.
Hinkle Will Leave Curtain Club
At Its Highest Peak in Years

Outgoing Director Names "Adding Machine" No. 1 Play

Sam Tolken

When the last act of the "Tender Trap" ends and the curtain falls, the Ursinus Curtain Club will lose one of the best advisors it has ever had. Dr. Edgar H. Hinkle, after three years of dramatic coaching, has decided to step down. The new advisor to the Curtain Club will be Mr. Melvyn H. Evrard, a member of the English department.

This is Dr. Hinkle's first school-year in residence at Ursinus, and its related Student-Faculty organization. He has been so happy to get the maps and the staging that I have been given since the creation of the Curtain Club on Monday, March 19, 1965. Dr. Hinkle started the first fall-in-the-round production of "Curtain Club" at the Ursinus College.

The play was "Dear Wormwood" which was a decided departure from the usual broad comedy in the Curtain Club. Under Dr. Hinkle's direction, "Adding Machine" was presented. In the fall of 1964, the Curtain Club under Dr. Hinkle's direction, "Adding Machine" which used a realistic, modern setting and a realistic, modern setting and

Girls' Basketball Season

Overpowers Owls

In the final games of the season, Ursinus J.V. and third teams overpowered Temple's Varsity and J.V. teams. Ursinus Stafielein led the team to their way to victory by scoring 21 points followed by 16 and 14 points by Purple. The Owls controlled the boards and used the fast break to gain, a half-time score of 24-20. They came back the second half with the same strategy and scored 29 points, making the final score 44-41.

The third team left the Temple girls from scoring by double teaming the girl with the ball. They pulled down many rebounds and limited down fast break to score. High scorer was Arden Wilman with 16 points. And hitting double figures was Rachel Metzger with 31 in the quarter the team received. Click and work the ball in for the sure shot. The final score was 51-34.

Dominant Beaver

The varsity "B" started out strong and never gave up their lead to beat Beaver 48-30. The defense, led by Pat Holmes and Brenda Beger, was very strong and most of Beaver's points were made on foul shots. The score was headed by Diana Van Dam with 16 points and Joan Moor and Kannde Allen with 14 points. The J.V. team outplayed Beaver in the final games of the season, and they pulled down many rebounds and hustled down the court to four points in the second half to give W.C. the victory. The final score was 34-27.

That was a lid on the basket and the basket and only scored four points in the second half to give W.C. the victory. The final score was 34-27.

UC Bows to Rams

The Ursinus girls tried to pull a victory in the remaining three games of the West Cheyney name but was not successful. The team, led by Pat Holmes and Brenda Beger, was very strong and most of Beaver's points were made on foul shots. The score was headed by Diana Van Dam with 16 points and Joan Moor and Kannde Allen with 14 points. The J.V. team outplayed Beaver in the final games of the season, and they pulled down many rebounds and hustled down the court to score. The final score was 51-34.

The third team edged a bit higher than the second team, and the Rams outscored the Owls by 18 points. The Quick scorer of the game; Gail Fallon scored 17 to be the high scorer of the game. The Owls outdid the Owls so they dropped in points while the offense was scored. The final score was 98-72.

UC Beats Cheyney

The third team did a nice job in the final game and was very successful in the final game. The team, led by Pat Holmes and Brenda Beger, was very strong and most of Beaver's points were made on foul shots. The score was headed by Diana Van Dam with 16 points and Joan Moor and Kannde Allen with 14 points. The J.V. team outplayed Beaver in the final games of the season, and they pulled down many rebounds and hustled down the court to score. The final score was 51-34.
