4-25-1966

The Ursinus Weekly, April 25, 1966

Lawrence Romane
Ursinus College

Mort Kersey
Ursinus College

Gary McClellan
Ursinus College

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.ursinus.edu/weekly

Part of the Cultural History Commons, Higher Education Commons, Liberal Studies Commons, Social History Commons, and the United States History Commons

Click here to let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Newspapers at Digital Commons @ Ursinus College. It has been accepted for inclusion in Ursinus Weekly Newspaper by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Ursinus College. For more information, please contact aprock@ursinus.edu.
Senior Senators

Helen M. Treadwell, secretary of the Student Senate, has announced that the class of 1967 is now on the senatorial roll.

Birth Control Panel Discusses Issues

The panel members were asked to discuss the present situation in the United States, the problems involved in the birth control movement and the responsibilities of the Senate in this matter.

Foreign Service Officer Discusses Possibilities of Jobs Overseas

Mr. John R. McGehee, assistant professor of international business at the University of Pennsylvania, discussed the opportunities available in the Foreign Service. He explained that the Service offers a wide variety of jobs and also provides opportunities for travel and adventure.

1966 Orientation Planned

The annual orientation program for new freshmen will be held on August 25, 1966. The program will include sessions on campus life, academic matters, and social activities.

THE URUSIN WEEKLY

Volume LV

Number 20

Y Off Campus Weekend

Food, Parlay, Fun

A recent poll, a young Prebyterian minister and another young man, said that spaghetti dinners are just three of the elements that will combine to form the cornerstone of the Y-retain this coming weekend — a chance to do some relaxing, some playing, some getting to know the community.

Discussion

The topic for the Retreat is "Religion and Science." This will offer an interesting opportunity for students to discuss their views on this important issue.

Student Faculty Show Reveals Hidden Talents

A student-faculty show was held recently to promote the talents of both students and faculty members. The show included various performances such as musical numbers, dance, and impromptu skits.

Friday night's Student-Faculty Variety Show on the final evening of the week proved to be the high point for all, with a finale consisting of a different unison number. The highlight of the show was the variety of acts, from music to dance, that contributed to the overall success of the event.

Society Honors S. Ross Dougherty With Scholarship

Mr. S. Ross Dougherty, a member of the History Department, was honored with a scholarship.

THE URUSIN WEEKLY

Volume LV

Number 20

Y Off Campus Weekend

Food, Parlay, Fun

A recent poll, a young Prebyterian minister and another young man, said that spaghetti dinners are just three of the elements that will combine to form the cornerstone of the Y-retain this coming weekend — a chance to do some relaxing, some playing, some getting to know the community.

Discussion

The topic for the Retreat is "Religion and Science." This will offer an interesting opportunity for students to discuss their views on this important issue.

Student Faculty Show Reveals Hidden Talents

A student-faculty show was held recently to promote the talents of both students and faculty members. The show included various performances such as musical numbers, dance, and impromptu skits.

Friday night's Student-Faculty Variety Show on the final evening of the week proved to be the high point for all, with a finale consisting of a different unison number. The highlight of the show was the variety of acts, from music to dance, that contributed to the overall success of the event.

Society Honors S. Ross Dougherty With Scholarship

Mr. S. Ross Dougherty, a member of the History Department, was honored with a scholarship.

THE URUSIN WEEKLY

Volume LV

Number 20

Y Off Campus Weekend

Food, Parlay, Fun

A recent poll, a young Prebyterian minister and another young man, said that spaghetti dinners are just three of the elements that will combine to form the cornerstone of the Y-retain this coming weekend — a chance to do some relaxing, some playing, some getting to know the community.

Discussion

The topic for the Retreat is "Religion and Science." This will offer an interesting opportunity for students to discuss their views on this important issue.

Student Faculty Show Reveals Hidden Talents

A student-faculty show was held recently to promote the talents of both students and faculty members. The show included various performances such as musical numbers, dance, and impromptu skits.

Friday night's Student-Faculty Variety Show on the final evening of the week proved to be the high point for all, with a finale consisting of a different unison number. The highlight of the show was the variety of acts, from music to dance, that contributed to the overall success of the event.

Society Honors S. Ross Dougherty With Scholarship

Mr. S. Ross Dougherty, a member of the History Department, was honored with a scholarship.
Frat Officers Find Pledging Very Important For All!

Pledging Masters, Brothers Defend Old Traditions

Gary McCollin

Pledging that wonderful period between rushing and brotherhood. In its best periods, pledges are usually more popular to the readers. For instance, due to the new and indefensible position which we base of wider scope, decisive opening, and student participation is the stand we wish to take.

Pledges may not bring on a rash of cross burnings or riots, but student suggestions and opinions is entirely open-minded. Simply for editorializing, The direction of the writing is ours, but we concur with us; write to us if you find us bordering on the subject can be yours.

We have about a month's backlog of feature articles,” he screams, the names of contributing persons narrated.

The donor assured us that there's room for about one hundred, and the donor added, "and there's room for about one hundred girls, and we've got a lot more girls than that." Seriously, though, we can consider this issue in the Weekly's response to the disorderly growth and suggest to the staff that the college has a touch of literary paranoia. In fact, we write to you if you concur with us; write to us if you find us bordering on feebledom, wipe to us even if you have a suggestion for editorializing. The direction of the writing is ours, but you can be sure that your colleagues. If you don't direct us, you may be led to our endless mudrets for an entire year.

Staff 's Things

Weekly Issue "A Face" by Merle Kersey

My editor has ordered me to consider this issue as the second state of this ad-deficient issue. Here we have a chance for the direction of the school, the name of the U.C. reader. However, we lack specific care for the special agreement or disagreement of our readers so much as we care for their continued support and interest in the writing of the U.C. reader. However, we care for specific care. Secondly, the writing will be more decisive. Opinionated, dogmatic, or even bigoted sump­lings are a catch for blank hands, but perhaps they will alleviate some campus boredom. It is, of course, beyond the meagre nature of our literary faculty to be able to satisfy the demands of the U.C. reader. However, we lack the specific care for the special agreement or disagreement of our readers as much as we care for their continued support and interest in the writing of the U.C. reader.

We shall welcome your letters of sarcasm, criticism, and information. Let this article and our staff toward student suggestions and opinions is entirely open-minded.

We shall welcome your letters of sarcasm, criticism, and information. Let this article and our staff toward student suggestions and opinions is entirely open-minded. We shall welcome your letters of sarcasm, criticism, and information. Let this article and our staff toward student suggestions and opinions is entirely open-minded. We shall welcome your letters of sarcasm, criticism, and information.
Track Team Boasts Three Early Wins

The Ursinus track team opened its 1969 season with a 36-31 victory over Haverford on April 6. The young Bears showed great promise in the coming season by capturing six first places.

The Ursinus track team opened its 1969 season with a 36-31 victory over Haverford on April 6. The young Bears showed great promise in the coming season by capturing six first places.

The in the ninth. After a walk, a bunt single and a flyout, Johnson singled home the tying run off reliever Troster. Then, on the pitcher’s mound, Dickson and Grover smoked the next three batters, to produce a 3-2 final score.

The winners were: Sue Murphy, Al Walstad, and Marge Watson.

The defense doesn’t get the credit and the glory that comes with winning a meet. For example, the defense of 1-0 half of the work and a good number. The defense in the victory over Haverford was no exception. At last defense was in love with the game, and always does a good job of connecting with the pitcher. At shortstop, senior Carol Bouler played with experience and skill. At catcher was sophomore Amy Slotnick, the only other Ursinus player to take a two-run lead against the visitors. She started the ninth inning with a double. In the top of the ninth, Ursinus scored its first run on a two-run single by Doug Smith.

The Bear nine stretched its winning streak to three over the weekend and showed its best defensive performance of the season in the victory over Haverford. In the third inning, after a walk, a bunt and a groundout, Johnson singled home the tying run off reliever Troster. Then, on the pitcher’s mound, Dickson and Grover smoked the next three batters, to produce a 3-2 final score.

The winners were: Sue Murphy, Al Walstad, and Marge Watson.

The defense doesn’t get the credit and the glory that comes with winning a meet. For example, the defense in the victory over Haverford was no exception. At last defense was in love with the game, and always does a good job of connecting with the pitcher. At shortstop, senior Carol Bouler played with experience and skill. At catcher was sophomore Amy Slotnick, the only other Ursinus player to take a two-run lead against the visitors. She started the ninth inning with a double. In the top of the ninth, Ursinus scored its first run on a two-run single by Doug Smith.

The Bear nine stretched its winning streak to three over the weekend and showed its best defensive performance of the season in the victory over Haverford. In the third inning, after a walk, a bunt and a groundout, Johnson singled home the tying run off reliever Troster. Then, on the pitcher’s mound, Dickson and Grover smoked the next three batters, to produce a 3-2 final score.

The winners were: Sue Murphy, Al Walstad, and Marge Watson.

The defense doesn’t get the credit and the glory that comes with winning a meet. For example, the defense in the victory over Haverford was no exception. At last defense was in love with the game, and always does a good job of connecting with the pitcher. At shortstop, senior Carol Bouler played with experience and skill. At catcher was sophomore Amy Slotnick, the only other Ursinus player to take a two-run lead against the visitors. She started the ninth inning with a double. In the top of the ninth, Ursinus scored its first run on a two-run single by Doug Smith.

The Bear nine stretched its winning streak to three over the weekend and showed its best defensive performance of the season in the victory over Haverford. In the third inning, after a walk, a bunt and a groundout, Johnson singled home the tying run off reliever Troster. Then, on the pitcher’s mound, Dickson and Grover smoked the next three batters, to produce a 3-2 final score.

The winners were: Sue Murphy, Al Walstad, and Marge Watson.

The defense doesn’t get the credit and the glory that comes with winning a meet. For example, the defense in the victory over Haverford was no exception. At last defense was in love with the game, and always does a good job of connecting with the pitcher. At shortstop, senior Carol Bouler played with experience and skill. At catcher was sophomore Amy Slotnick, the only other Ursinus player to take a two-run lead against the visitors. She started the ninth inning with a double. In the top of the ninth, Ursinus scored its first run on a two-run single by Doug Smith.

The Bear nine stretched its winning streak to three over the weekend and showed its best defensive performance of the season in the victory over Haverford. In the third inning, after a walk, a bunt and a groundout, Johnson singled home the tying run off reliever Troster. Then, on the pitcher’s mound, Dickson and Grover smoked the next three batters, to produce a 3-2 final score.

The winners were: Sue Murphy, Al Walstad, and Marge Watson.

The defense doesn’t get the credit and the glory that comes with winning a meet. For example, the defense in the victory over Haverford was no exception. At last defense was in love with the game, and always does a good job of connecting with the pitcher. At shortstop, senior Carol Bouler played with experience and skill. At catcher was sophomore Amy Slotnick, the only other Ursinus player to take a two-run lead against the visitors. She started the ninth inning with a double. In the top of the ninth, Ursinus scored its first run on a two-run single by Doug Smith.

The Bear nine stretched its winning streak to three over the weekend and showed its best defensive performance of the season in the victory over Haverford. In the third inning, after a walk, a bunt and a groundout, Johnson singled home the tying run off reliever Troster. Then, on the pitcher’s mound, Dickson and Grover smoked the next three batters, to produce a 3-2 final score.

The winners were: Sue Murphy, Al Walstad, and Marge Watson.

The defense doesn’t get the credit and the glory that comes with winning a meet. For example, the defense in the victory over Haverford was no exception. At last defense was in love with the game, and always does a good job of connecting with the pitcher. At shortstop, senior Carol Bouler played with experience and skill. At catcher was sophomore Amy Slotnick, the only other Ursinus player to take a two-run lead against the visitors. She started the ninth inning with a double. In the top of the ninth, Ursinus scored its first run on a two-run single by Doug Smith.

The Bear nine stretched its winning streak to three over the weekend and showed its best defensive performance of the season in the victory over Haverford. In the third inning, after a walk, a bunt and a groundout, Johnson singled home the tying run off reliever Troster. Then, on the pitcher’s mound, Dickson and Grover smoked the next three batters, to produce a 3-2 final score.

The winners were: Sue Murphy, Al Walstad, and Marge Watson.