Dear Wilson,

Senator Catherland is very much interested in having George M. Hanson appointed to the Consular Service. He took the examination yesterday. The Senator says that Hanson has been with him as Secretary for seven years and is a most capable and faithful man. I am very anxious to secure what the Senator wishes and I hope you will give your personal attention to this matter and do everything consistent with the public interest to see that Hanson has a fair show. Sincerely yours
Gustaf

Hanson is another man from Utah, named Peterson, who expects Hanson not the slightest objection regarding his appointment. I think of the appointments are few.
