H. R. Evans,

H. D. Bechtel,
The trial of the defendant was opened today by the county coroner's inquest, which found that the defendant had been murdered on Saturday by his own father, who had been engaged in a quarrel with him. The jury acquitted the defendant of all charges.

The defendant was arrested for the murder of his father, who had been found dead in their home. The defendant had been under suspicion for some time, and the coroner's inquest was held to determine the cause of death. The jury was unable to reach a verdict, and the defendant was released on bail.
