"Demolition in Store for Supply" by Sam Tolaco

The demolition of the present library building is in the works this fall, and with its completion, the new library will be a reality. The construction of the new library will be a significant step in the development of the university, with a modern and spacious facility that will accommodate the growing needs of the student body.

Mr. Paisley, President of the Board of Trustees, emphasized the importance of the library in the educational mission of the university.

"The library is the heart of the university," said Mr. Paisley. "It is a place where students can come to study, to learn, and to grow. The new library will provide the resources and facilities that our students need to succeed."
Dean's List Student Ignores Blindness

Penny Wright Succeeds in College But History Soothes Her To Sleep

by Mary Kay Merger

To the Students:

Penny Wright, a student here at Ursinus, has been on the Dean's List for the past three years. She is an outstanding student and has always been an inspiration to her classmates. However, this year she has decided to ignore her blindness and continue attending classes as usual.

Penny's English major has led her to write letters to her extra-curricular activities and her extra-curricular activities have benefited from her presence. She has been a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Society and a member of the Delta Sigma Theta sorority. leading by example and inspiring others to follow.

In addition to her academic achievements, Penny is an active member of the community and has volunteered at a local charity, helping to organized events and fundraisers. She has also been a mentor to other students, providing them with guidance and support.

We are proud of Penny's accomplishments and encourage her to continue pursuing her goals. Her dedication and hard work have made her a valuable member of our community and we look forward to seeing what she will accomplish in the future.

Sincerely,
Margaret A. Kline, President

FORESSES MERGER

By the Students:

Ours is a time of change. The draft has changed the landscape of college life. Penny Wright, a student at Ursinus College, has become a symbol of this change.

Penny's story is one of determination and resilience. Despite her blindness, she has continued to pursue her education and has excelled in her studies. Her classmates and professors have been inspired by her strength and dedication.

We believe that Penny's story is a reminder that even in the face of adversity, we can overcome obstacles and achieve our goals. We encourage all students to draw inspiration from Penny's example and to continue working towards their dreams.

Sincerely,
Donald G. Baker, President

LITTLE MAN ON CAMPUS

It was just a simple request that I had made earlier in the day. I asked my friend to let me borrow her camera so that I could take some pictures of the campus. She hesitated for a moment but then agreed to lend it to me.

As I walked around the campus, I was struck by the beauty of the surroundings. The trees were in full bloom, the flowers were blooming, and the campus was alive with the sounds of students and professors alike.

I spent the afternoon taking pictures of the campus, capturing the essence of this special place. As I was leaving, I noticed a group of students gathered outside the library. They were discussing something, but I couldn't quite make out what they were saying.

As I approached them, I heard one of them say, "What a beautiful day!" I looked up and saw the sun shining brightly in the sky. I realized then that I had been so focused on the photos that I had forgotten to appreciate the beauty of the moment.

I decided to take a break from the photos and join the group of students. They were discussing the upcoming campus-wide event of "The Great Escape," where students will have the opportunity to explore the campus and learn about its history.

As we walked around, I was struck by the sense of community and shared purpose that I felt. It was a reminder of how much we have in common, despite our differences.

I took a few more photos and then said goodbye to the group. As I walked away, I felt grateful for the opportunity to have spent the day on campus and for the memories that I had created.
Netmen Win One of Four

The Ursinus Weekly

Tuesday, the 26th of April, was a gray day for the Ursinus vars ity basketball team. The Ursinus team had only been one other day like it in the past 10 years, and on that day, two years ago, Ursinus lost but to the same team.

It was Ursinus' game to win but five minutes of the game. Early a comfortable 3-2 lead on the hash on the three couts by Braid, Bert, and Don Smith on one of the day, and one by Greem Meyelmann. The sec ond half was U.C.'s downfall, we scored only three goals to U.C.'s eight. West Chester scored the final goal of the half followed by Don's; U.C.'s lead was cut to 2-2 goals at U.C. scored twice in a row. None Murphy booted the scorers 3-6, but W.C. came back with another. Then Day scored U.C.'s last goal, making the score 4-6, Ursinus, with less than ten minutes left in the game. They had been playing Ursinus for 15 minutes, Ursinus had 10 minutes, and the other team played 35 minutes, and it just seemed like it was a matter of time before the West Chester team would score. It wasn't the game; the other team did not score, and with less than one minute to play, smoke to smoke, the winning goal and goaljeer from the West Chester fans. The Ursinus team left the field in disbelief. They played to West Chester for a return game on May 4th, Thursday.

There was some consolation in the fact that the Ursinus team won their game in a speaker. 7-6, over Wilmington College 6-1, but thanks to Gale Pedersen's heroic play, Paul's two, and the cash for Ryan Bow and Bob Paul, the tables were turned and Ursinus came out on top.

Women's Tennis Team 1-3 on Season

The V.C.'s team was led by its second sing les; Elen Boxin lost 6-4 and 4-6, to a strong singles player. Joe Conklin put up a good fight but was overpowered, with one of the best doubles teams in the country. Next, John and Linda Nolen lost 6-3 and 6-4, to second doubles; Juvie Szyer and Gail Johnson lost 6-0 and 5-6. In JV competition Marge Taylor lost 6-1 and 6-4, to third doubles. Lynn Power lost 6-1 and 6-2, to third doubles; Jan Thomsen and Linda McNicholl lost 6-3 and 6-3, to JV doubles; Eileen Ray and Mary Wilson lost 6-0 and 6-0.
