

7-3-1912

Letter From Abram Piatt Andrew to Francis Mairs Huntington-Wilson, July 3, 1912

Abram Piatt Andrew

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.ursinus.edu/fmhw_other

 Part of the Diplomatic History Commons, Political History Commons, and the United States History Commons

Click here to let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation

Andrew, Abram Piatt, "Letter From Abram Piatt Andrew to Francis Mairs Huntington-Wilson, July 3, 1912" (1912). Other Correspondence. 222.

https://digitalcommons.ursinus.edu/fmhw_other/222

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the Assistant Secretary of State (1909-1913) at Digital Commons @ Ursinus College. It has been accepted for inclusion in Other Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons @ Ursinus College. For more information, please contact aprock@ursinus.edu.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT

ASSISTANT SECRETARY

Washington, July 3, 1912.

PERSONAL.

Dear Huntington:

I hope that you won't think too harshly of me for making public the two letters which I have reluctantly given out today. The circumstances here have been so deeply annoying, as I perhaps hinted to you one night a month or six weeks ago, that life was really unendurable. I am sorry about the publicity, but in view of all sorts of unpleasant possibilities, it seemed to me that in justice to myself I must make some such statement as to the conditions here. I am going right up to Gloucester and shall take quite a little rest before turning to anything else. I have greatly enjoyed in Washington my friendship with you and your wife and I hope it may always continue.

Sincerely yours,

A. Piatt Andrew

Hon. Huntington Wilson,
1608 K Street N. W.,
Washington, D. C.