Sue Harman Places in Penna. Title Contest

In the contest for the title of "Miss Pennsylvania," first runner-up, winning also, this title, Congeniality, June 27, at West Chester State College.

This was the climax to a series of events which entered the Annual Miss Montgomery County beauty contest.

Sue Harman placed in a whirlpool of activity started last April, when Sue Harman, Ursinus senior and a member of the Ursinus College Band, first heard the announcement of the contest.

The title contest followed the "Miss Pennsylvania" contest and the annual "Operation Homecoming" contest. The last two events were sponsored by the Ursinus College Band, and the annual "Operation Homecoming" contest was sponsored by the Ursinus College Drama Club.

The title contest was held at West Chester State College, and the event was attended by a large audience.

The contest was judged by a panel of judges who were experts in the field of pageantry.

Sue Harman was chosen as the winner of the title contest, and she was presented with a bouquet of flowers and a sash.

The event was broadcast live on television, and the audience was able to watch the proceedings as they unfolded.

Sue Harman's victory was thought to be well-deserved, as she had shown great talent and dedication to the pageantry world.

The entire Ursinus College Band was also a part of the event, and they were able to showcase their talents in front of a large audience.

The event was a great success, and it was enjoyed by all who attended.

Customs Anyone?

Dear Mr. Editor,

There is a topic of extreme interest to the Faculty and Student body of Ursins at the present time. There are some who would not down Customs an important part of the college career. Certainly to this point of view the traditions of indoctrinating are coming under a new and taking place. Since it has lasted as long there must be some good reason for its existence. It is necessary at this time to take some of this reasoning.

The object of the program is to unify the new students as a class not, above all, as an integral part of the college. This has not been deemed as a worthwhile purpose. The difference of opinion tends on whether or not the program is being conducted properly. The new has been taken that the incoming class has not been treated with the dignity due a college student. Quality and respect as a student are not something that a person could be aligned to without his registration papers. It is true that some choose those titles of meaning by taking on the responsibilities that are due a student. It is not true that he become a college student through maturation. The majority of college students are not ready to have these new responsibilities which will broaden their horizons. This does not mean that they cannot handle a maturity. This is rather that it is going to take...
