Football Game, Reception To Highlight Parents Day

The fourth annual Parents' Day will be held Saturday, October 24. This program, started four years ago, is becoming an established tradition on the Ursinus campus.

A Word from the Dean...

The Student Activities Committee has asked that Rule 22, concerning the use of black ink for publication purposes, be revised to allow students to have their work published in the college newspaper, The Ursinus Scholar. The committee feels that this rule would enhance the quality of the paper and provide more opportunities for students to have their work published.

Young Politicians Debate National Partisan Issues

by Harry Feinberg

The Young Republicans and the Young Democrats will debate the presidential campaign issues Tuesday at 7:30 in Bomberger Chapel. The Democrats will be represented by Len Footland and Tom Minehart, Republicans Charlie Spenser and Kent Ferguson will oppose.

Reading from left-left, Tom Minehart and Len Footland, Democratic party spokesmen, have provided the student body with a chance to examine the various viewpoints of the candidates. The debate will be an open forum where anyone who has an opinion on any of the issues will voice their thoughts.

The opportunity to debate issues of national importance is one that both parties feel is important. They feel that it is important to have a forum where people can express their opinions and learn about the different viewpoints.

The debates have been well attended and have provided a great deal of information for the student body. They have also served as a means of providing a forum for discussion and debate.

Projected Literary Magazine Plans Liberal Editorial Policy

GIEFAN, a student initiated literary magazine, is scheduled to appear in publication this semester. An experiment in culture, under the editorship of Craig Bender, it is expected to encourage original forms or variations of present literary forms.

Giefan will be financed by Student Services and the Literary Arts Committee. It will be printed in a limited edition of 1,000 copies at a cost of $0.25 per copy. The magazine will be distributed at the Student Services Office and in various campus locations.

The magazine will be published bi-monthly and will feature the work of Ursinus students. It will contain fiction, poetry, and essays on a wide range of topics.

Football Game, Reception To Highlight Parents Day

The fourth annual Parents' Day will be held Saturday, October 24. This program, started four years ago, is becoming an established tradition on the Ursinus campus.

The residence halls will be open to visitors between 1:30 and 4:00 p.m. on Saturday. The charter bus to the Shippensburg University, Biology, and Physics laboratories will be in operation in addition to the usual library and chapel. The college will continue to operate normal hours.

Individualism--Iron Style

by Canden Speckary

Individualism, as described in the New Standard Dictionary, is "a personal independence in action, character, or interest. Most commonly, the individualistic is the idealized image of rugged individual. But characteristics of the individualistic breed in America from Fariborz, a man with a mind born from a Philosopher and a writer with a life of their own. Their unique personalities and individualism provide the unique individual is of degree in his interest in a life away from society away from his home in the city. It is a life away from society away from Fariborz, from Iran, from his family, friends, and society. They are his own individual, his own character, his own interest in a life away from society.
