February 15, 1913.

My dear Mr. Lippincott:

Herewith I enclose a copy of a telegram which I have just sent to Mr. Kates.

Allow me to express my great sympathy with the purpose of the Philadelphia Society for Promoting Agriculture to give its influence to the valuable movement for the establishment of proper agricultural credit systems in the United States and to reiterate, at the same time, my great regret that the exigencies of my duties here at this time make it unfortunately out of the question for me to accept myself your very courteous invitation.

With many regrets and acknowledgments, I remain,
my dear Mr. Lippincott,

Yours very faithfully,

P. C. Knapp

J. Bertram Lippincott, Esquire,
President, Philadelphia Society for Promoting Agriculture,
