The Doanes Report on Teaching in The South

We are never allowed to forget that we are living in the South, and that our brand of teaching is geared to the South. The Doanes Report is not only a reflection of the life and times of the South, but also an indicator of the atmosphere in which we are being taught.

Civil Rights Law

The people of the state are facing a crisis in the Civil Rights Law, not to the defeat of the law itself, but to the failure of the people to understand and apply it. The Doanes Report points out that many people are still blinded by the cloak of ignorance and are not willing to see the reality of the situation.

Bears Drop Two, F&M-Swarthmore; Troster’s Thirty Points Rock PMC

On December 15, the Bears traveled to Franklin and Marshall for their first away game that was going to repeat home. The Swarthmore game was won by a satisfying 78-43 victory. The Troster team scored its season-high against five other teams. The win was a repeat of the game where the Bears won by 49 points earlier in the season.

Parker and Troster Star

Ursinus returned to its home court with a satisfying 70-48 victory over F&M. The Troster team scored its season-high against five other teams. The win was a repeat of the game where the Bears won by 49 points earlier in the season.

Jinx Still Holds

The Troster team continued its streak against five other teams. The win was a repeat of the game where the Bears won by 49 points earlier in the season.

Sniper’s Niche

Criticism, when it is well founded and accurately based, is a valuable tool, not a nasty weapon. If it is carefully thought out and constructive, then criticism serves a useful purpose. Nor do all criticisms merit all fallible; yet no one enjoys being told when he’s wrong.

Webster defines criticism as “the act of judging with knowledge and propriety... and with similar consideration of offenses and logical values.” Mr. Hoffman, the key words here are “with knowledge and propriety.” It is easy to criticize a wrestler, a basketball player, or any athlete. Not only is there criticism of the athletic facilities, the referees, the fans, or the way the President sits and watches the students at the ball games. When it comes to sports at Ursinus, we all realize that we are getting the best out of the ball players or the coaches we watch at any save of information, whether we know it or not, and magnifies the extent that it loses its potential critical power and becomes garbage.

Soccer Team Gets Three on All-MAC

pressuring whites to sell at a low, rentling to negro middle class families at substantially higher prices.

The students also discussed the effectiveness of the movement. Especially debated was the effectiveness of the Negroes. The political philosophy that while science and tec-nology had improved the lives of the Negroes, the move to housing and education had been neither as thorough nor as well-organized as the movement of the black me-
