ASSISTANT SECRETARY

FEB 26 1913

February 25, 1913.

Dear Mr. Wilson:

Confirming letters written to you by Mr. Kates it gives me great pleasure to have the honor of your company Thursday evening to deliver a brief address on "Agricultural Financial Credit," and also attend the reception at my house 1712 Spruce Street afterwards.

If it is more convenient to you, I will be much pleased if you will stay over night at my home.

Looking forward with pleasure to seeing you on the 27th, I remain,

Yours very truly,

J. B. Lippincott

Hon. Huntington Wilson.

Mr, J. Bertram Lippincott requests the pleasure of your company at his residence, 1712 Spruce Street, on Thursday Evening, February Twenty-seventh, Nineteen Hundred and Thirteen, at half-past ten o'clock, to meet the Hon. Huntington Wilson, Assistant Secretary of State.
