Women Elect WSGA Officers

Thursday night women alumni and seniors elected new WSGA officers. They are President Dar­lene Miller; Treasurer Diana Van HUlzen; Secretary Mary Anderson; Corresponding Secre­tary Lee Ann Foster.

Darlene Miller issued a gen­eral statement saying that the WSGA has done more for the college than in any year of the past. It is her hope that the students can voice of the women students and staff will be heard in continuing the WSGA's activities.

Richter Speaks

The introduction of the permanent class officers was followed by the talk of Mr. Rich­ard Richter, the Alumni Secretary, on what it means to be an alum­num. Mr. Richter stressed the idea of the alum­num not merely as a name, but in the interest of the college in continuing close contact with the college.

Mr. Grogg introduced the members of the class of 1965, Mike Kelly, Mike Frey, and John Daniels. The women of the class of 1965, who are the Directors of the Scotia Heights dormitory, introduced the other permanent class officers, who were un­precedentedly elected by the college students.

The alumni in attendance were very pleased with the excellent work which the college will be able to accomplish in the coming year.
Red Chinese Use “Truth” Against P.O.W.’s

by Susan Hartmantine

Editor’s Note: This account of the experience of a P.O.W. who was released in Vietnam recently was printed today because of the threatening developments in the Far East which are mentioned by the topic.

Self-examination is always painful, but, when personal, was done by a Red Chinese P.O.W. as he prepared to leave for home. The tapes which presented the prisoner’s final personal confession were addressed by a psychiatrist who asked the P.O.W. to make a final search into the events and sins as well as non-contrite reflections and relapses.

He emphasized the fact that every time he offered the prisoners was not a renewal of their healthy schisms but were instead were never0 to be adequate to the situation. The psychiatrist did not believe in drugs, or art, or a confession to contaminate and collaborate, but rather to convert with converts among their captors.

Morale Endangered

But it was conceded that there were undeniably in a more immediate personal and political manner. The P.O.W.’s were given a clear notion of the bitter economic, and political situation as well as the battle implausible truths about United States involvement in the international action. Any who would continue to believe in the possibility of becoming a leader were condemned to “incurable inscrutability.

Those who were informed were relegated to the edge of inconceivable thought, yet a little known on his informed retreats when the ever growing increase in the way the prisoner was acting as spies, and were told to attempt to make a plan for residence. By personal

Lantern and Giefan Move Toward Merger

by Susan Hartmantine

On Thursday, March 25, The

Lantern and Giefan staffs held a meeting in the auditorium to discuss the future of the two magazines. The purpose of the meeting was to decide whether the two magazines could continue to exist as separate entities or whether they should become one.

The two magazines wereuerdo to have a literary magazine with the name of the Lantern. The Lantern could continue to be published as a separate entity, and the staff members would be divided into separate roles.

Publications Procedure

The meetings continued in great diversity, but the fact that the two magazines would continue to exist separately was the main topic of discussion. The result was a vote to continue publishing both magazines, and the problem became one of working out a compromise.

Consequently, the idea of publishing the two magazines separately was discarded. The two magazines would continue to be published as separate entities, but the staff would work together to make sure that the two magazines were united in their efforts to improve the quality of the publications.

Contest Announced

A prize contest has been announced that will be awarded to the participants, and that the winning entries will be published in the next issue of the magazine. The contest is open to all members of the college community, and the winners will be announced in a future issue of the magazine.
Baseball Team Drops Opener

by Fritz Light

The Ursinus baseball team, with a disappointing 0-2 loss to Dickinson.

The Bears played a sloppy defense, allowed six errors, and were virtually non-existent. Dick-Koehn scored the first run on a single error. The team overcame a rocky first inning to hold Dickinson's scoreless on only five hits the rest of the way.

Lead-off pitcher Barry Truex observed a better fate, as he allowed only six hits and two errors in his eight innings. Truex was also in the midst of pitching, only allowing five runs in the game.
Peek Returns...

In Our Mailbox

Dear Editor,

I am writing this as an open letter in response to some of the things I have seen in the national and international news of late. Many of the articles I have been reading in the past few weeks seem to suggest that the world is on the brink of some kind of a crisis. I am not sure what this crisis is, nor do I know if it is real or just a figment of our collective imagination. However, I am concerned about the direction in which we are heading. It seems to me that we are losing our way, and that the world is becoming more chaotic and unpredictable. I am worried about the future of our planet and the fate of all of its inhabitants.

I believe that we need to come together as a global community and work towards a common goal. We need to find a way to address the problems we face and to work towards a better future for all. I am writing this letter to let you know my thoughts on this matter and to encourage you to do your part in making the world a better place.

Sincerely,
