Christmas Spirit Brightens Campus

Christmas has come to Ursinus campus. Cards are being exchanged all over the place. The air is filled with the spirit of Christmas, and the entire campus has been decorated in the spirit of the season. The administration and students are putting their best foot forward to make the holiday season as enjoyable as possible.

Phone Super Plans For Annual Party

It has been traditional for the members of the Greek fraternity, Zeta Chi, to host a YWCA party to benefit the YMCA. The girls of the YWCA will have a party for the boys of the Greek fraternity. This year, the party will be held at Christmas time, and the sisters will attend a Gay Gymnasium. The sisters will have their Gay Gymnasium.

New Year and was professional entertainment on campus. La t year, the Greek fraternity, Alpha Phi Omega, gave a party to benefit the YMCA. The sisters had refreshments and enjoyed the musical entertainment. This year, the Greek fraternity will host a similar party.

Jewish Students Celebrate Holiday

During this holiday season, there will be many celebrations held on campus. The Jewish Students will be holding their own celebration, which will be held in the Student Center. The celebration will include a candlelight service, a menorah light, and a prayer service. The sisters will have their Gay Gymnasium.

Annual WSGA Fest Takes on Changes

The burning of the candles is a tradition that has been passed down through the years. This year, the sisters will be burning candles to symbolize the menorah. The sisterhood has many traditions that they hold dear to their hearts, and they will continue to honor them in the future.

Greek Christmas at Ursinus

Greek Christmas at Ursinus is a time of celebration and joy. The sisters will be holding a Christmas party, which will include a midnight Mass and a breakfast. The sisters will be decorated in their finest, and they will have a fun and exciting time.

Joseph Aronson is the showman until all the arrangements are made. It is a time of happiness and joy for the sisters, and they will continue to celebrate this joyous occasion in the future.

Clamer Hall's Santa Claus (Epple Schaefter) and two helpers, who were present at Clamer Hall on Christmas Day, gave a party to benefit the YWCA. They invited all of the students to enjoy the festive atmosphere. The sisters will have their Gay Gymnasium.
Performance of “Messiah” Rated Unique in Its Perfection

by The Feature Staff

For the past 20 years, Ursinus College Students, under the direction of Dr. William F. Philip, have participated in Handel’s MESSIAH with the end result that each performance has been better than any of previous years. This year, however, resulted in a perfect performance which was unique in its perfection. Runs were handled with all the skill of a professional chorus. Phrases and words were all in place, and nothing was out of place. The chorus was clad in the sounds of the same 250 voice chorus.

Drinking Topic of Kaffee Klatsch

At the Kaffee Klatsch Friday afternoon, the question of drinking on the Ursinus campus was discussed. In attendance at the discussion, by special invitation, was Chief Mccall of the Collegewide Police Department who offered specific information concerning the legality of drinking in Collegewide and in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The attending group tried to discover the serious and the reasons behind the drinking of alcohol on Ursinus College. In actuality, it was only learned that no one knew specifically how or why the rule was instituted, or by whom it was initiated.

Proposals were introduced in the form of possible substitutes for the drinking. Proposals, however, disagreements among the group present, students and faculty were unanimously lined up in opposition to the faculty, but more often the faculty and students opposed the suggestions of other groups of students and faculty.

With this in mind, the attending group tried to hasten its debate, the argument sometimes left room for reasonable, logical grounds appearing in the question of whether or not drinking is part of a college life. The students, faculty, and Sophomore women, who have been given much maligned in two parent homes, has been gnawed at the surface of the problem. To achieve a solution inharmony, as well as the need for understanding and tolerance, the Sophomore women were determined to be heard. It will not be long before the Sophomore women will achieve its once in a lifetime goal.

The holiday spirit has invaded everyone on the Ursinus Campus. Sherierrs Hall, along with many other buildings were decorated a pine tree, symbolizing the start of the Christmas Season.

Four Pledge to Pi Nu Epsilon, Music Fraternity

The music fraternity Pi Nu Epsilon has announced the initiation of the following students into the organization: Bob Martin, Paul Bruck, John Fedorko, and Don Turello. The new members, all members of the Cardinal Glee Club, were initiated into the fraternity on the occasion of the recent performance of the club at the Student Union in response to a request by the students.

Tory Martin and Bob Zoller of the Maintenance Department install lights over the steps of the Student Union in response to the request of the students.

Greeks Gleanings

Della Mu Sigma

The brothers of Della Mu Sigma would like to congratulate the following members of the chapter on their anniversaries: Epsilon, Meistersingers and the band.

Young G.O.P.

Overbrook. In recent months he has announced the installation of lights in the Student Union. Those lights are being refurbished to work with the existing campus lighting system, and will be placed on each of the doors, and one in the passage way under the main steps of Bomberger. There is now an exalted feeling among the evening travelers to be familiar with the Greek Gleanings.

Delta Pi Sigma

Five Pledge to Epsilon, with the announcement that he is planning to familiarize himself with the Greek Gleanings. The pledge is now anxious to await the announcement of the new group.

UFC Folk Singers: An Interview

Among other things, the FCU folk singers, a rather informal, semi-professional group of self-styled artists, have been very popular with the majority of the student population. The FCU Folk Singers, a rather informal, semi-professional group of self-styled artists, have been very popular with the majority of the student population. This is due to the fact that they are a generation away from the folk music scene of the 60s, and what should not be classed as the "original" folk music, but, despite the differences, they are still very much alive in the minds of many students.

The concert was sponsored by the Student Union, and was well-attended. The audience was made up of students from the college, and a few from the surrounding community. The concert was well-received by the audience, and several requests were made for the group to return to the college for future performances.

Barry Troster (24) and Mike's Footman threw up a 42-yard punt; averaged 31.0 yards per kickoff; his 49 punts and 33 field goals put them among the best in the nation.

The defense lost it for us. We just seemed to be getting man-to-man thrown up by the step offering scholarships. Yet, proved to be less than expected. Nipped in the Bud
The UC basketballs had a number of things going for them through their first two games. They had gotten off to their best start in four years; they were getting solid performances out of all the starters; and most of all, they had stirred up a little momentum. However, all dreams of an undefeated December flew out the window when a home-coming game against the Bears was decided in favor of the visitors.

"Well," you might ask yourself, "why did these visit­ers treat their hosts so ungraciously?" Co-captains Chuck Schaal and Walt Korenkiewicz supplied most of the answers to this query. "We played their game instead of stick­ing to our own. We weren't ready for Pharmacy's man-to­man, but still when you score 81 points you ought to win. The defense lost it for us. We just seemed to be getting there a split second too late. And, of course, they shot 57% for the whole game and that's pretty hard to beat."

Backcourt man Bush Hoffmann seemed in agreement. "We gave away too many shots underneath, and we didn't fully use our height advantage." There was little doubt that Tony Troster's man-to-man defense put a crimp in our style. But suggested that we could have had Korenkiewicz on the high post, and Rich Long on the low post where he could have thrown his weight around with more satis­faction. However, with Gier and the key, we took one shot and prayed.

No matter what the explanations, the Bears' quick start was nipped in the bud before it could get up a full head of steam. The loss to Pharmacy was one that could have been avoided, yet it cannot obscure Ursinus' obvious impro­vement. UC is a lot more interesting to watch, and they've got the gumption to stick with the opposition.

Not many teams will run the likes of Troster and Gierman and Schaal off the boards. There's more to a team and more to the total effort.
