Fourteen Ursinus Seniors Named to Who's Who in American Colleges

Fourteen Ursinus seniors have been named to WHO'S WHO AMONG COLLEGE SENIORS. The WEEKLY was notified of the final list of selections last Thursday afternoon by Dean of Men Richard W. Hier and Mrs. Helen Freelance.

The following qualities are considered in the selection process:
- the student's excellence and sincerity in scholarship
- leadership and participation in extra-curricular activities
- scholarship and service to the community
- promise of future usefulness to business and society

The first volume of Who in American Colleges and Universities was compiled in 1895. The names and biographies of outstanding seniors in over 500 American colleges and universities were compiled in that volume and mailed to 1,500 libraries.

The names and biographies of the fourteen seniors honored from this year's graduating class are:

APT Report From the Topic of The Parish Church

The Rev. Gabriel J. Fickler, assistant professor of philosophy, electronics, and ethics at the Lancaster Theological Seminary, Lancaster, Pa., will give an address and hold an informal conference on campus tomorrow.

Fickler will meet with other interested students for a conference at 4:30 in Bomberger Hall and at 6:45 will deliver an address in an informal church on topic "The Relevance of the Parish Church."

Fickler will be speaking to interested students and faculty about his work in the church and about the relationship between the world and the church. He will discuss the importance of the local church and how it can be effective in reaching the general public.

The primary significance of the local parish at a time when many people are losing faith in organized religion is one of those things that Fickler will be discussing.

Computers to be Topic of Math Club Meeting

"The Logical Foundation of the Modern Computer" will be the topic of discussion at a meeting of the Math Club to be held this Wednesday evening at 8 p.m. in Room 410 of the Student Center.

The topic will be presented by a local speaker who will discuss the history and development of the modern computer.

The Relevance of the Parish Church Topic of Theological Tomorrow

At a meeting of the Academic Council held on November 5 in the Faculty Room of the library, major curriculum changes were announced. The changes are expected to concentrate a good deal of the student body's attention.

The changes include the elimination of the major in political science, the creation of a new major in history, and the addition of a new course in the field of economics.

ATTENTION: STUDENTS

All students are reminded that the final examination period begins Wednesday. All students should plan their study according to the schedule.

ADDITIONAL REMINDERS

Fourteenth Annual "Messiah" Performance Scheduled For Thursday Evening

The 25th performance of "Messiah" will be presented at Ursinus College on December 1, 1962, at 8:15 p.m. in Bomberger Chapel. A small band called the "Oklahoma Strings" will provide the instrumental music. Three Ursinus seniors will provide the vocal music. Class of '64, Judy Esterline, class of '65, have assumed the piano accompaniment.

Fourteen seniors are expected to participate in the performance. These are the vocal soloists who will participate in the performance of "Messiah." Each is an internationally known artist with a creditable career. From left to right are: (1) Frederick Meyer, tenor, a favorite with Ursinus audience; (2) Jeanne Craker, soprano, who appeared in last year's orchestra; and (3) John Higginson, tenor, a solo vocalist from Philadelphia and New York. Professor Helfferich told the WEEKLY that about a dozen alumni will return, as alumni have done each year, to sing in the 1962 chorus.

This performance will be the culmination of some two months of rehearsal on the part of the chorus. Leile Kershner, class of '63 and Bob Livingston, class of '64, have been acting as student-conductors throughout the rehearsal period, while Linda Thompson, class of '64, has assumed the piano accompaniment.

A new face among the guest soloists will be Laurel Miller, mezzo-soprano, who made her New York debut a year ago in the Carnegie Recital Hall. Miss Miller teaches at the Fullbrook School in New York and has been named to the Pennsylvania Federation of Music Clubs Contest, and the awards of the National Federation of Music Clubs and the Concert Artists Guild, A NEW YORK TIMES critic reported that she has a "fine, big voice" suitable to any kind of music, always clear and controlled.

Constant Activity A Way of Life with Dr. Maurice Armstrong

by Barbara Gettys

Perhaps you have wondered what drives Dr. Maurice Armstrong to be engaged in so many types of work and activity. He could comment: "I have a strong interest in people as definite individuals that drives him to involve himself so deeply with them. When asked why he was doing this, he replied: "I am interested in helping people grow and supply minister at the same time, as well as keep up with his various activities. Dr. Armstrong gave the impression that his question was rather tongue-in-cheek, since there was no other way of living or fulfilling oneself.

He sketches a picture of himself in 1945, after completing a service term in the Merchant Marine. He was then a student at the University of Delaware, studying in the field of Navymathematics. After a training period in Florida, he was promoted to Lieutenant, j.g., and then was stationed at UDT 21, Navalphoto base, Wilmington. After a summer in Europe, he was at the University of Pennsylvania, where he majored in Chemistry.

Dr. Armstrong decided to enter the ministry, feeling that his human beings were more important than birds.

Thus he entered Pine Hills Divinity School, which is affiliated with the United Church of Christ, at the same time completing his Master's Degree. After being ordained at Delaware, his Master's Degree, he attended the University of Pennsylvania, where he was ordained in 1947. Subsequently he served as a pastor in New Brunswick and became involved in the Presbyterian Movement, which was to include the Social Action Program with college students.

Dr. Armstrong is a staunch advocate of the Presbyterian Historical Society. As a resident of that city he is a member of the presbytery of Philadelphia and a member of the Philadelphia Bar Association. He also serves as the President of the Presbyterian Historical Society.

Great Awakening in Nova Scotia is a book by Dr. Armstrong. It is one of the best books ever written on the history of Nova Scotia and the development of its people. The book is written in an entertaining and informative style, making it accessible to readers of all ages. The story of Nova Scotia is told through the eyes of the people who lived there, from early settlers to modern times. This book is a must-read for anyone interested in Canadian history.

Dr. Armstrong's other books include "Seeds of the Revolution," which examines the role of women in the American Revolution, and "The Other Ameri

Dr. Armstrong is a man of many talents. He is a widely respected scholar, a dedicated teacher, and a caring leader in the Presbyterian Church. He is a committed advocate for social justice and equality, and his work has had a significant impact on the lives of people around the world.

Among His Honors

The Presbyterian Historical Society awarded Dr. Armstrong with the Distinguished Teaching Award. He is the first person to receive this honor in the University of Pennsylvania History Department, and he was presented with the Paul Revere Award in 1973 for his outstanding contributions to American Studies.

Dr. Armstrong has been honored with the Distinguished Teaching Award from the Pennsylvania Historical Society. He has also received the Distinguished Teaching Award from the University of Pennsylvania. In 1973, he received the Paul Revere Award for his outstanding contributions to American Studies.

Dr. Armstrong has received many awards for his teaching and research, including the Distinguished Teaching Award from the University of Pennsylvania and the Paul Revere Award from the Pennsylvania Historical Society. Intramural Story

by Denny Wilson

This week's Intramural activities took place in the two end gyms, with a full house on hand in the old gym. On Tuesday evening, Derr (6-18) trounced Wharton (0-15) in the Intramural Basketball Championship. The only question about this match was whether the WAA will play the intramural Champions in volleyball. The Bears have two left after Saturday's game and a possible Third Place game.

Basketball Results

In last night's Intramural game, Leber-South blasted Mepham 68-28, and Derr has the same record. It was the second time that the Bears have failed to win their opener varsity team will open on February 2, when they play hostess has tentatively been arranged

DECK THE HALLS

When you think of Christmas gifts you naturally think of Marlboro cigarettes. Marlboro's mild and gently blended taste, made with the finest quality leaf of the world's finest tobacco, is more than a habit for smokers of all ages. It is a way of life. Marlboro cigarettes have the same mild, flavorful, completely comfortable smoke. When you light a Marlboro you can always be certain that you will get the same mild, flavorful, completely comfortable smoke. This, as you naturally put us in mind of Marlboro cigarettes.

Women's Swim Team Faces Full Schedule

The Ursinus College Women's Swim Team of 1962-63 has been announced, and it will be difficult to find anyone who believes that the Ursinus team will not win the conference title again.

The Ursinus team will be led by Betsy Kleinginna, Diane Eberwine, and Kate Leslie. Last year they won all conference meets, except that they were unable to complete the ceremonies at the Old Gym.

These are the things that the Ursinus team will have to do in the next two years:

1. Win the conference meet.
2. Win the conference meet in the fall.
3. Win the conference meet in the spring.
4. Win the conference meet in the winter.
5. Win the conference meet in the summer.
6. Win the conference meet in the autumn.
7. Win the conference meet in the spring.
8. Win the conference meet in the winter.
9. Win the conference meet in the fall.
10. Win the conference meet in the spring.

The Virtue of Conditioning

After watching Ursinus perform in the MAC wrestling championships last week, coach, Bob McCreary remarked, "Two things stand out in my mind: the poor condition of the Ursinus wrestlers and the high level of conditioning that the UC grapplers have to maintain. Both teams will be extremely conditioned and I think it is a great way for the Ursinus wrestlers to improve their wrestling skills. I think that the Ursinus wrestlers should be at the top of the list in the MAC wrestling rankings."
