President Emeritus McClure Dies Following Recent Illness

Dr. Norman Egbert McClure, President Emeritus of Ursinus College, died at the age of 69 years Thursday morning, January 31, in Jefferson Hospital in Philadelphia. Dr. McClure was a man who dedicated his life to Ursinus College. To faculty, alumni and students alike he was beloved. His death was a sad occasion and a great loss to his family. In his remaining family he is survived by his wife, Doris (Myers) McClure, and two daughters.

As a summary of the life of Dr. McClure, the present strength of Ursinus College may be considered a reflection of the result of his steady and vigorous leadership. Dr. McClure was Ursinus' seventh president, serving from 1959 until 1968. He was graduated from Ursinus College in 1921 and went on to receive his Master of Arts degree in 1922 and his Doctor of Philosophy degree at the University of Pennsylvania in 1925. In 1929 he earned his Doctorate of Letters degree at the University of Pennsylvania. He was an informal instructor from 1923-1924, Dean of the College from 1924-1926, and Dean of Men from 1926-1929. He was an instructor in Romance Philology in 1929-1930.

Dr. Donald Baker Discusses US at Koffee Klathe

Dr. Donald B. Baker was the featured guest at the "Y-Koffee Klathe," held this Friday evening, just one day after Valentine's Day. The theme of the evening will be "Morning, January 31, in Jefferson Hospital in Philadelphia," held this Friday evening, just one day after Valentine's Day. It is a morning the nation will never forget. The house is filled with students, faculty, and visitors from all over the country. Dr. Baker begins his talk by saying, "In the morning of January 31, 1968, the nation was shocked by the tragic death of President John F. Kennedy. It was a morning that would never be forgotten."

Dr. Yost Pays Tribute to His Late Colleague

Dr. Calvin Yost, head of the English department for many years a friend of the late Dr. McClure. Their relationship was a close one, and the WEEKLY thought it would be fitting to ask Dr. Yost to write a tribute to his colleague. (To be continued on page 2)

Legal Counselor Slated to Address PSEA

Tomorrow night the PSEA will hear a guest speaker discuss "The Legal Responsibilities of Teachers." Mr. Louis F. Adler, a legal consultant of the statewide PSEA, will begin his talk at 6:45 p.m. in Room 7 of Bernoulli. PSEA president Charles Helfferich introduced the talk and said that it should be of interest to all PSEA members. Refresher courses will be served after the meeting. (Continued on page 2)

President Helfferich Quizzed in "Controversy At Midday" Chat

President Helfferich was quizzed in the column "Controversy At Midday" Chat, which appeared in the Weekly. The column is read by students, faculty, and visitors to the campus.

Dr. Helfferich answers one of the questions posed to him at the meeting with the weekly. The question asked was, "Do you think the policy on off campus parties is the best one?" Dr. Helfferich answered, "The policy on off campus parties is the best one."
Peek Around the Campus

by Carl Pack

I found some of the students who were quick to question the title of "Contemporary at Midnight" rather perfunctorily. As I thought we should receive a modest tip, I edged toward the edge of my seat at the question of the clearly questions and promptly. Also, there are relatively students armed with verbal often. Is this what you're looking for? My friend, a warden at the Chicago police station, has moved to the Park Forest area. For this he deserves your respect as a reporter.

Silver Scholarships

March 11 is the deadline for entering Reed & Barton's "Bri-teering Scholarship Contest." The competition, in which students are to participate, is open to all students of Ursinus, Phi Kappa Psi, Sigma Nu, Lambda Chi, Chi Phi, Eta Sigma, Zeta Tau Alpha, and Sigma Nu. In addition, there will be 100 others, with awards varying from $100 to $500, depending on the number of entries.

This year, the contest is called the "Silver Opinion Competition." 12 designs of sterling silver pieces, two of which were created by Ursinus students, will be presented to selected students.

Dr. Zuckar is one of the ski instructors at the recently opened Spring Mountain Ski Slope in Schwenksville.

by George Brucker

Winter vacationists who long for the out-of-doors in general, and ski slopes in particular, now avail themselves. The Student Skiing at Schwenksville, Mount Winter Sports, Incorporated, has opened a 7,000-sf, 2000-square foot ski trail near Schwenksville.

The slope is open from 9 to 9 every day and from 7 to 11 every evening. Group rates of $8 per person; groups of 12 or more are available.

For Ursinus students on weekdays and weekend evens. This includes lift, rental, and slope fees.
