SUPPORT THE CAMPUS CHEST

Democrats Name Dr. Zucker For State Senate Candidacy

Assistant Ursinus Professor of Political Science

Ursinus Choice of County Committee Thursday

Dr. F. Donald Zucker, an Assistant Professor of Political Science at Ursinus, was chosen Thursday night as the Democratic candidate for the State Senate from Montgomery County. Dr. Zucker was given the unanimous support of the committee at a lengthy meeting in Norristown.

Dr. Zucker received his Doctorate in Political Science from Brandeis University in 1950 and has been teaching at Ursinus for three years. He has been active in Democratic county associations and is a member of the Montco Democratic Central Committee.

Two One-Ac Play Acts To Aid Chest Fund

On Tuesday, March 6, at eight-thirty, the Ursinus women’s group, the Shakespearean’s Ladies’ Mask, presented “The Sons of Thunder” at the Cloister. This production is a direct descendant of Dr. Zucker’s presentation of “Hamlet.”

The story of the play is what might happen should the Montco Shakespearean’s most noted female comedians meet Perco, from “The Merchant of Venice,” Katherina from “The Taming of the Shrew,” Desdemona from “Othello,” Ophelia from “Hamlet,” and Cleopatra from “The Taming of the Shrew.”

The experimental site of the performance was the Cloister, with the mask, which was presented by the Rabid. He said that the Montco theater and the Shakespearean’s have not yet been able to perform it in the Cloister due to the lack of a good lighting system.

As part of his address from Frederick’s store, Dr. Zucker commented that “Instead of asking the government for funds, our system of free enterprise has in the past been put to use. For example: Everything on this campus has been built through contributions — with no government interference.”

GOP Alliance Talk Delivered by Neitz

Robert Neitz, a member of the Republican Alliance on campus, will address the Ursinus College student body this afternoon.

The President of the Alliance has chosen a topic that he believes will be of interest to all members.

The program will be held in the Center for the Arts, and will be conducted by Dr. Zucker, who is expected to announce his candidacy for the State Senate.

Unofficially, the drive opened this morning in athletics when Betsy Friend, co-chairman of the drive, presented a mock ballot to the campus.

In his acceptance speech, Dr. Zucker said that the drive had been very successful and that he was confident of its success.

The drive will be divided equally among five charities, the Philadelphia, the Pennsylvania, the Montgomery County, the Northampton County, and the Norristown Salvation Army.

Elected ‘Ugliest Men on Campus’

English Class to Discuss Robert Frost

Mr. Huddleston will lead a discussion of two modern novels with a particular emphasis on the English Class. These novels will be “The Big Sleep” by Raymond Chandler and “Brave New World” by Aldous Huxley.

Both of these novels are about to be released in paperback form by Doubleday.

The discussion will begin at 8:30 Thursday evening in the English Department.

ASH WEDNESDAY SERVICE

A candlelight Ash Wednesday mass will be held in the music studio in the upstairs of the library. The service will last from 9:00 to 9:30. All students are invited to the worship service.

Stunts, Shows, Sales, and Merriment Planned to Help Five Local Charities

Parties, auctions, races, shows, and sales will highlight the two week Chest Drive which opened today. In addition, the students, the faculty and the administration of the college will unite in an effort to raise $2500, the goal of this year’s drive.

The money will be divided equally among five charities, the Philadelphia, the Pennsylvania, the Montgomery County, the Northampton County, and the Norristown Salvation Army.

EDITORIAL

Warning: Campus Chest Editorial

As we, above all, know the agony of relining upholstery with a personality which would buy a sandwich and a beer for cleaning of a kitchen or purchase of a tank of gas—to a bright-eyed, hopeful Campus Chest collector. As he extends his hand, palm up, we too have known the rush of excitement of a righteous cause. We too have felt the uneasy realization of our own villainy upon our dropping a donation will exempt one from the pursuits of the remainder of a day, a week, a month. Now, it is the turn to take a realistic view of the Campus Chest appeal. It is the turn to realize that our beloved campus, equipped to absorb a great volume of the funds contributed, has experienced a deep personal loss when the bright-eyed collector has passed through some fiendishly logical argument, wrested the dollar from our pocket.

Once again the spirit of the money hungry Campus Chest pervades the campus. More than ever before, it has demanded the complete allegiance of a pure-hearted, right-minded student. We seek to divide them among Boys’ Protestants, Lenoxian Societies, and the like. Sounds! Will the determination of these few individuals ever make us shudder? How many years are we going to be the last day? Now, it is the turn to take a realistic view of the Campus Chest appeal. It is the turn to realize that our beloved campus, equipped to absorb a great volume of the funds contributed, has experienced a deep personal loss when the bright-eyed collector has passed through some fiendishly logical argument, wrested the dollar from our pocket.

Each student, it turns out, will eventually have to donate three dollars for these zealots to realize their ambitions goal of $2500. They have been working diligently, planning shows, stunts, games, and sales, to undermine the financial status of the Ursinus student. They will be satisfied with nothing less than their $2500. They will put up with theft, destroy rooms, bully, beg, reason, and argue for their cause.

We are informed, however, that a quick three dollar donation will deliver the culprit from the purposed misdeeds. It is a thoroughly dishonorable, re- peated and burdensome Campus Chest representative. Is it not worth it?

If we can’t go to and participate in the altogether worthy project cheerfully, let us at least give grudgingly. "Here, fellow," let us say contemptuously to the collector. "Here, let us give you three dollars and be done. I don’t want them anyway."

Would it not be better still, to enjoy the Chest Drive? It is with us for two weeks only and will be fun.

Making Peace

Religious Emphasis Week came and went with no more emphasis on religion than that occasioned by the talks of a preacher who directed his studies a little more restrained in form and language than dormitory ball-sessions.

Yet, the American Press carried last week a most distressing item under the heading, "Religious Emphasis Week." The paragraph behind it was replete with the purely religious, with the purely secular, with the purely good deeds, with the purely bad deeds, and the pur- pursued by the truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, truly, true...
The Ursinus wrestling team hosted Drexel on Monday, March 1st. Drexel jumped off to a fast start, leading 15-11 in the first round. However, Ursinus fought back, making it 15-13 before the intermission. The second round was a close fought battle, with Ursinus coming out on top 35-31. The biggest obstacle in Dean's path to another MAC championship was edged when he lost a 1-0 overtime decision to Dick Siebenson of Drexel.
